§ 1. The court and justices continued; term of office.

The municipal court of the city of New York, as it exists on the thirty-first day of August, nineteen hundred and fifteen, shall be continued; provided, however, that from and after the first day of September, nineteen hundred and fifteen, it shall be a court of record. The justices thereof in office when this act takes effect shall continue to hold office until the expiration of their respective terms. The successors of said justices shall be elected for terms of ten years by the electors of the several municipal court districts, as hereby constituted, at the general election to be held in the years at the end of which the respective terms of said justices shall expire.

New. Municipal Court made a court of record. This section supersedes Greater New York Charter, §§ 1350, 1351, 1352 (as amended by L. 1907, ch. 603 and L. 1911, ch. 608) and 1356.

§ 2. Qualifications and duties of justices; oath of office.

No one shall be eligible to the office of justice of this court, after the first day of September, nineteen hundred and fifteen, unless he be a resident and elector in the district for which he shall be elected or appointed and shall have been an attorney and counselor-at-law of the state of New York for at least five years or unless he shall have served as a justice of such municipal court. No justice shall engage in any other business or profession, or hold any other public office, or act as referee or receiver, but each justice shall devote his whole time and capacity, so far as the public interest demands, to the duties of his office. Before entering upon his duties each justice elected or appointed pursuant to this act, shall take and file with the city clerk the oath of office prescribed by the constitution.

The justices may, by virtue of their offices, administer oaths, take depositions and acknowledgments within the city of New York, and certify the same in the manner and with like effect as justices of other courts of record.

New. Supersedes §§ 1353, 1354 of Greater New York Charter without change. Last sentence includes former § 10 of Municipal Court Act.

§ 10 originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1379.

§ 3. Salaries of justices.

The salary of each justice, except those appointed or elected from the boroughs of Queens and Richmond, shall be eight thousand dollars a year, to be paid in equal monthly installments by the proper officers of the city and the salary of each justice appointed or elected for the boroughs of Queens and Richmond shall be seven thousand dollars a year, to be paid in the same manner; provided, however, that whenever a justice elected or appointed for the borough of Queens or the borough of Richmond shall hold court in either of the boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn or The Bronx, he shall receive the additional sum of ten dollars for each day on which he shall so hold court, not exceeding, however, such sum as shall, together with his said salary, make the amount received by him in any one year equal to the salary of a justice of one of the other boroughs. Such additional sum shall be paid on the certification of the president of the board of justices that the holding of court by such justice was necessary, in consequence of the illness or necessary absence of the justice regularly assigned to hold the same, or on account of pressure of business.

New. § 1355 of Greater New York Charter, as amended by L. 1907, ch. 603, re-enacted without change.

§ 4. Vacancy in the office of justice.

A vacancy occurring in the office of justice of this court otherwise than by expiration of term, shall be filled at the next ensuing general election for the unexpired term commencing on the first day of January next after said election; and the mayor of the city of New York shall appoint a duly qualified attorney to fill such vacancy in the interim, within twenty days after the same occurs.

This section is substantially § 1357 of Greater New York Charter. L. 1907, ch. 603 in so far as it amended that section, is unconstitutional (In re Markland v. Scully, 203 N. Y. 158).

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

§ 5. [Am'd, 1916, 1917, 1918.] Districts and number of justices therein.

The several boroughs composing the city of New York are hereby divided into districts, in each of which sessions of the court shall be held, and justices shall hold office therein in number as follows:

a. In the borough of The Bronx there shall be two districts, as follows:

1. The first district embracing the territory bounded by and within the following: Beginning at the center line of Mount Vernon avenue and its junction with the northern boundary line of the city of New York, southerly to East Two Hundred and Thirty-third street, easterly to the Bronx river, thence along the Bronx river to Fordham road, thence along Fordham road to Southern boulevard, thence along Southern boulevard to Marmion avenue, thence along Marmion avenue to East One Hundred and Seventy-fifth street, thence along East One Hundred and Seventy-fifth street to Southern boulevard, thence along Southern boulevard to Crotona Park east, thence along Crotona Park east to Clinton avenue, thence along Clinton avenue to East One Hundred and Sixty-ninth street, thence along East One Hundred and Sixty-ninth street to Union avenue, thence along Union avenue to East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, thence along East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street to the waters of the East river, thence along the waters of the East river to the northern boundary line of the city of New York, thence along the northern boundary line of the city of New York to the point or place of beginning; in which district there shall be two justices. (Subd. a. 1. Amended by L. 1917, ch. 728, in effect, June 4, 1917.)<sup>1</sup>

2. The second district embracing the remainder of said borough; in which district there shall be two justices.

b. In the borough of Manhattan there shall be nine districts, as follows:

1. The first district embraces the territory bounded on the south and west by the southerly and westerly boundaries of the said borough; on the north by the center line of Fourteenth street and the center line of Fifth street, from the Bowery to Second avenue; on the east by the center lines of Fourth avenue, from Fourteenth street to Fifth street, Second avenue, Chrystie street, Division street and Catharine street; in which district there shall be three justices.

ninth street, and by the center line of Central Park West, from Fifty-ninth street to Sixty-fifth street; on the north by the center line of Sixty-fifth street and the center line of Fifty-ninth street, from Seventh to Eighth avenues; on the west by the westerly boundary of the said borough; in which district there shall be two justices.

4. The fourth district embraces the territory bounded on the south by the center line of East Fourteenth street; on the west by the center line of Lexington avenue and by the center line of Irving place, including its projection through Gramercy park; on the north by the center line of Fifty-ninth street; on the east by the easterly line of said borough; excluding, however, any portion of Blackwell's island; in which district there shall be two justices.

5. The fifth district embraces the territory bounded on the south by the center line of Sixty-fifth street; on the east by the center line of Central Park West; on the north by the center line of One Hundred and Tenth street; on the west by the westerly boundary of said borough; in which district there shall be three justices.

6. The sixth district embraces the territory bounded on the south by the center line of Fifty-ninth street, and by the center line of Ninety-sixth street from Lexington avenue to Fifth avenue; on the west by the center line of Lexington avenue, from Fifty-ninth street to Ninety-sixth street, and the center line of Fifth avenue, from Ninety-sixth street to One Hundred and Tenth street; on the north by the center line of One Hundred and Tenth street; on the east by the easterly boundary of said borough; including, however, all of Blackwell's island and excluding any portion of Ward's island; in which district there shall be two justices.

7. The seventh district embraces the territory bounded on the south by the center line of One Hundred and Tenth street; on the east by the center line of Fifth avenue to the northerly terminus thereof, and north of the northerly terminus of Fifth avenue, following in a northerly direction the course of the Harlem river on a line coterminous with the easterly boundary of said borough; on the north and west by the northerly and westerly boundaries of said borough; in which district there shall be three justices.

8. The eighth district embraces the territory bounded on the south by the center line of One Hundred and Tenth street; on the west by the center line of Fifth avenue; on the north and east by the northerly and easterly boundaries of said borough, including Randall's island and the whole of Ward's island; in which district there shall be two justices.

9. The ninth district embraces the territory bounded on the south by the center line of Fourteenth street and by the center line of Fifty-ninth street, from the center line of Seventh avenue to the center line of Central Park West; on the east by the center line of Lexington avenue and by the center line of Irving place, including its projection through Gramercy park, and by the center line of Fifth avenue, from the center line of Ninety-sixth street to the center line of One Hundred and Tenth street; on the north by the center line of Ninety-sixth street, from the center line of Lexington avenue to the center line of Fifth avenue, and by One Hundred and Tenth street, from Fifth avenue to Central Park West; on the west by the center line of Seventh avenue and Central Park West; in which district there shall be four justices.

c. In the borough of Brooklyn there shall be seven districts, as follows:

1. The first district embraces wards one and three of said borough; in which district there shall be one justice.

2. The second district embraces wards two, four and five of said borough; in which district there shall be one justice.

New. Re-enacts §§ 1358-1363 of Greater New York Charter, as amended by L. 1907, ch. 603 and L. 1908, ch. 462, but makes no change in the law.

§ 6. Jurisdiction.

The municipal court of the city of New York shall have jurisdiction:

1. Of the following actions when the amount claimed in the summons does not exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs: an action upon a contract, express or implied, other than a contract to marry; an action to recover a fine or penalty; an action to establish a mechanic's lien on real property and to recover a personal judgment for the amount due; an action to foreclose a lien on a chattel; an action to recover damages for an escape from the jail liberties of any county within the city of New York; an action to recover damages for fraud or deceit, or for a personal injury or an injury to property, except actions to recover damages for assault, battery, malicious prosecution, false imprisonment, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, or loss of society of husband or wife; an action to take, state and determine the account between partners after dissolution or other termination of their partnership relation, and to render judgment for the amount so found to be due, but in no event for more than one thousand dollars.

2. Of the following actions and proceedings: an action to recover a chattel or chattels the aggregate value of which does not exceed one thousand dollars, with or without damages for the taking or detention thereof; a summary proceeding authorized by the code of civil procedure to recover possession of real property situated wholly or partly within the district where the application is made, and in such a proceeding it shall not be necessary for the court to sign the warrant, but it may be signed by the clerk; an action in behalf of the people of the state or the city of New York, brought by the direction of a commissioner of public charities or an overseer of the poor, upon a bastardy or abandonment bond; an action upon the bond of a marshal of the city of New York.

3. To issue or vacate a requisition to replevy, a warrant of attachment, a warrant to seize a chattel and an order of arrest; to grant or vacate a stay of execution or of other proceedings, including a warrant in summary proceedings to recover possession of real property, provided that in summary proceedings no stay shall be granted for more than five days; to render judgment in an action, or to make a final order in a summary proceeding, upon confession or upon the consent of both parties.

4. Of actions and summary proceedings, within the foregoing limitations, by or against the city of New York; by or on behalf of the people of the state of New York; by or against a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation; by or against a domestic or foreign executor or administrator in his representative capacity; by or against a committee of an incompetent.

5. Of actions and proceedings of which the municipal court of the city of New York had jurisdiction on the thirty-first day of August, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

6. To provide systems of conciliation and arbitration and to enter judgment upon an award of arbitrators.

7. To open a default; to direct or set aside a verdict; to vacate, amend, correct or modify any process, mandate, judgment, order or final order, in furtherance of justice, for any error in form or substance; to grant a new trial upon any of the grounds for which a new trial may be granted by the supreme court in an action pending therein, including the grounds of fraud and newly discovered evidence.

Former § 1 of Municipal Court Act amended and rewritten. § 1, as amended by L. 1905, ch. 513; L. 1908, ch. 495; L. 1910, ch. 538. Originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1285; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1364.

Jurisdiction increased from $500 to $1,000.

Subd. 4 enlarges the classes of cases included in former subd. 18. Subd. 6 is new. See § 8, subds. 5 and 6. Former § 2 omitted because the court has only those powers that are specifically granted. In summary proceedings over which this court has jurisdiction the title to real property actually does come in issue without affecting the power of the court. In other cases of which this court has jurisdiction it can rarely if ever come in issue. Even under former § 2 the court is ousted of jurisdiction only at the option of the defendant and upon certain contingencies.

§ 7. Board of justices.

1. The justices of this court shall constitute the board of justices and shall discharge the functions thereof. They shall elect from their own number a president of the board of justices, and may at pleasure remove him and elect a successor in his place.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

The meetings of the board shall be public, and, so far as practicable, shall be held at regular intervals; and all its proceedings shall be recorded by its secretary and shall be preserved. A majority of all the members of the board shall constitute a quorum. The board may by resolution provide for the conduct of its meetings, the keeping and preservation of its minutes and the public inspection thereof at reasonable times; for the order of judicial business, the manner of its discharge and the maintenance of order in and about the courts; for the establishment of parts of the court and for the yearly assignment of justices to hold the several parts so established; provided, however, that no justice shall sit in any one district for two successive months, or in the borough of Manhattan for more than three months in any one year, or in the other boroughs for more than the minimum number of months under a system of complete rotation by the justices within such boroughs respectively.

3.* The president of the board of justices shall preside and be entitled to a vote at all meetings of the board. In addition to all the other powers of a justice, he shall exercise general supervision of the business of the court and have such other powers as may be conferred by resolutions of the board. He shall, whenever he deems it necessary for the prompt disposition of business, assign, in the borough from which he was elected, any justice temporarily to hold court in any district in said borough other than that in which he had been assigned by the board, and may assign a justice, with his consent, regardless of borough lines, to any district within the city, and transfer cases for trial from one district to another in the same borough. The acts or directions of the president of the board of justices may be vacated, amended or modified by a majority vote at a regular or special meeting of the board.

4. The board of justices may designate a clerk of said court for one of said districts to act as secretary of said board and from time to time substitute another and fix a compensation to be paid for such service, not exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars per annum. The secretary of the board of justices shall have charge of such administrative work and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the board. He shall maintain an office where he shall keep such records as the board may direct.

Former § 11 of Municipal Court Act, and § 1374 of Greater New York Charter, amended and rewritten with new matter added. Embraces some of the matter contained in former §§ 12 and 13 of Municipal Court Act. § 11, as amended by L. 1904, ch. 735; L. 1907, ch. 603. Originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1474.

System of rotation of justices retained.

§ 8. Rules of court.

The board of justices may adopt and amend rules relating to the following subjects:

1. The hours during which the court shall be open.
2. The duties of the secretary of the board, clerks, deputy-clerks, assistant clerks, stenographers, interpreters, attendants and employees; the manner of keeping records and papers, the collection and disposition of moneys and accounts thereof.
3. The forms and practices of the court, including forms of pleading and all matters of procedure not specifically provided for in this act.

* Subd. 2, as it appears in the report of the Municipal Court Commission, was omitted in course of passage through the Legislature.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

4. The calendar practice and the designation of a part or parts of the court where special classes of cases shall be brought or tried.

5. The establishment of a system of conciliation whereby controversies may be submitted by consent of the parties to a justice of the court for informal hearing and decision without entry of judgment.

6. The establishment of a system of arbitration and the procedure thereof.

Such rules shall be submitted to the presiding justices of the appellate division of the supreme court for the first and second departments, or to the justices presiding therein, and, when approved by them, shall have the force of law.

Former § 12, amended and rewritten, with some of its provisions transferred to new § 7, and with new matter added. § 12, as amended by L. 1903, ch. 282; L. 1904, ch. 598; L. 1907, ch. 603; L. 1908, ch. 431. Originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1375.

Provisions for forms of pleadings and systems of conciliation and arbitration are new.

§ 9. Death or removal of justice not to affect proceedings.

No process, action, judgment, execution or proceeding shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the death, removal from office or vacancy in office of any justice, but another justice shall proceed to hear, try, determine and give judgment in and upon the same, and upon all matters and things pending and undecided or not acted upon.

Former § 16 rewritten. § 16 originally revised from L. 1857, ch. 344; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1890.

§ 10. Time and place of holding court.

It shall be the duty of the commissioners of the sinking fund to provide a suitable place for holding court in each district in the city of New York; and more than one place in any district may be provided by them if the board of justices shall certify that the public convenience requires such additional places.

The justices assigned by the board of justices shall hold court in one or more parts in each district as established, and on such days as fixed, by said board and at the places provided by the commissioners of the sinking fund. In each district in the boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn, and in the second district of the borough of The Bronx, on every day of the year except Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays and during the months of July and August, at least one part of the court with a justice in attendance shall be open for the transaction of judicial business. During the months of July and August the court in each district shall be in session for at least two days in each week and shall try summary proceedings, actions for wages and, on good cause shown, other actions where the rights of the parties may be jeopardized by delay, and such other actions as the court may deem proper to be tried.

Former § 17 amended and rewritten. § 17, as amended by L. 1907, ch. 603. Originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1291; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1371. Provisions of second sentence of former section revised and made applicable to the Borough of Brooklyn and to the second district of the Borough of Bronx (with hours of holding court omitted), and classes of cases to be tried in July and August enlarged.

§ 11. Seals.

The court in each district shall have an official seal on which shall be engraved the arms of the state of New York, the name

6. The establishment of a system of arbitration and the procedure thereof.

Such rules shall be submitted to the presiding justices of the appellate division of the supreme court for the first and second departments, or to the justices presiding therein, and, when approved by them, shall have the force of law.

Former § 12, amended and rewritten, with some of its provisions transferred to new § 7, and with new matter added. § 12, as amended by L. 1903, ch. 282; L. 1904, ch. 598; L. 1907, ch. 603; L. 1908, ch. 431. Originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1375.

Provisions for forms of pleadings and systems of conciliation and arbitration are new.

§ 9. Death or removal of justice not to affect proceedings.

No process, action, judgment, execution or proceeding shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the death, removal from office or vacancy in office of any justice, but another justice shall proceed to hear, try, determine and give judgment in and upon the same, and upon all matters and things pending and undecided or not acted upon.

Former § 16 rewritten. § 16 originally revised from L. 1857, ch. 344; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1390.

§ 10. Time and place of holding court.

It shall be the duty of the commissioners of the sinking fund to provide a suitable place for holding court in each district in the city of New York; and more than one place in any district may be provided by them if the board of justices shall certify that the public convenience requires such additional places.

The justices assigned by the board of justices shall hold court in one or more parts in each district as established, and on such days as fixed, by said board and at the places provided by the commissioners of the sinking fund. In each district in the boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn, and in the second district of the borough of The Bronx, on every day of the year except Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays and during the months of July and August, at least one part of the court with a justice in attendance shall be open for the transaction of judicial business. During the months of July and August the court in each district shall be in session for at least two days in each week and shall try summary proceedings, actions for wages and, on good cause shown, other actions where the rights of the parties may be jeopardized by delay, and such other actions as the court may deem proper to be tried.

Former § 17 amended and rewritten. § 17, as amended by L. 1907, ch. 603. Originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1291; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1371. Provisions of second sentence of former section revised and made applicable to the Borough of Brooklyn and to the second district of the Borough of Bronx (with hours of holding court omitted), and classes of cases to be tried in July and August enlarged.

§ 11. Seals.

The court in each district shall have an official seal on which shall be engraved the arms of the state of New York, the name

§ 11. Seals.

The court in each district shall have an official seal on which shall be engraved the arms of the state of New York, the name of the court, the borough and the district. Such seals shall be furnished at the expense of the city of New York.

Former § 18 rewritten without substantial change. § 18 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1293; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1371.

§ 12. Access to court houses; expenses of court, how paid.

The justices of the court shall have access to and possession of the court houses. It shall be the duty of the board of aldermen of the city of New York and its several officers charged with duties in that behalf, to supply and pay for whatever may be necessary for the transaction of the business of said court and the justices thereof, to supply all proper accommodations, books, stationery and furniture, and to pay all salaries, compensations and expenses and disbursements herein authorized; and the board of estimate and apportionment shall annually include in its final estimate such sums as may be necessary to pay the same.

Former § 19 rewritten without substantial change. § 19 originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1380.

§ 13. Criminal and civil contempt.

All of the provisions of the judiciary law relating to civil and criminal contempts shall apply to this court, except subdivision seven of section seven hundred and fifty-three of said law and except that the provisions of said law relating to sheriffs shall apply to marshals, subject to the provisions of section one hundred and fifty-one of this act.

New. Supersedes former §§ 4-8g.

See Judiciary Law, §§ 750-781.

§ 14. Process; where service may be made.

The court shall have power to send its process and other mandates in an action or special proceeding of which it has jurisdiction to any part of the city of New York for service or execution, and to enforce obedience thereto, and the power and authority of said court extends to the whole of said city of New York, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act.

Former § 9 rewritten without substantial change. § 9 originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1368.

§ 15. Conformity to supreme court practice.

Except as otherwise provided in this act or in the rules, the practice, pleadings, forms and procedure in this court shall conform, as nearly as may be, to the practice, pleadings, forms and procedure existing at the time in like causes in the supreme court, any statutory limitations, heretofore enacted, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

New. Supersedes former § 20. Adopted from U. S. R. S., § 914, providing that the practice on the law side of the federal courts shall conform to the State practice. Insures the application to the Municipal Court of provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure notwithstanding § 3347 thereof, a section which has produced much conflict of authority.

TITLE II.

Venue and commencement of actions; parties.

Sec. 17. Venue.

18. Commencement of action.
19. Requisites of summons.
20. Form of summons.
21. Method of serving summons.
22. Who may serve summons or precept; proof of service.
23. Substitutes for personal service of summons.
24. Endorsement upon summons in action for penalty.
25. Endorsement upon summons for execution against the person.
26. Guardian ad litem.
27. Joinder of parties; interpleader.
28. Prosecuting or defending as a poor person.

§ 17. Venue.

1. An action must be brought in a district in which either the plaintiff or defendant or one of the plaintiffs or one of the defendants resides, unless all the plaintiffs or all the defendants reside out of the city of New York, in which case the action may be brought in any district; but an action brought by the assignee of the cause of action shall, upon the demand of a defendant made as provided in subdivision two of this section, be transferred to the district in which the defendant resides, and the court must make an order for such transfer, as provided in said subdivision. The district in which is situated the place for the regular transaction of business of an individual who does not reside in the city of New York, and the place where a corporation transacts its general business or keeps an office or has an agency established for the transaction of business, or is established by law, shall be deemed the place of residence under the provisions of this section. The city of New York may sue or be sued in any district, except as provided in subdivision three of this section.

2. If the action is brought in the wrong district, it may nevertheless remain there unless the defendant demands that it be transferred. Such demand must be made in writing and filed with the clerk before or at joinder of issue and must specify the district to which the defendant desires the action to be transferred and facts under oath showing that such district is the proper one. The court must thereupon transfer the action to the proper district, and may in its discretion impose five dollars costs against the plaintiff.

3. All actions by or on behalf of the city of New York, or any department thereof, to recover a fine or penalty, must be brought in the district where the violation of law occurred.

4. An action or special proceeding may upon consent be transferred by the court to a district other than that in which it is pending.

5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the board of justices from designating a part or parts of the court where special classes of cases shall be brought or tried, or the president of the board of justices from transferring cases from one district to another in the same borough.

Former § 25 amended and rewritten. Subdivision 5 is new. § 25, as amended by L. 1904, chs. 93, 625; L. 1907, ch. 603. Originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1370.

§ 24. Endorsement upon summons in action for penalty.

If no written complaint is delivered to the defendant in an action for a penalty or forfeiture, the summons and the copy thereof delivered to the defendant must bear an endorsement substantially in the following form: "according to the provisions of," adding such a description of the section of the statute or ordinance as will identify it with convenient certainty.

Former § 38 amended in form. § 38 originally revised from Code Civ. Pro., § 1897.

§ 25. Endorsement upon summons for execution against the person.

If no verified complaint is served with the summons in an action where execution against the person may issue upon the judgment, the summons and the copy delivered to the defendant must bear an indorsement substantially in the following language: "Plaintiff claims defendant is liable to arrest and imprisonment in this case."

Former § 39 amended in form. § 39 new in former Municipal Court Act.

§ 26. Guardian ad litem.

When a guardian is necessary he must be appointed by the court as follows:

1. If the infant is plaintiff, the appointment must be made before the summons is issued, upon the application of the infant, if he is of the age of fourteen years or upwards; if under that age, upon the application of some relative or friend. The consent in writing of the guardian to be appointed and to be liable for costs if he fails in the action, must be filed with the clerk of the court in the district where the action is brought, except that the guardian shall not be liable for costs where the plaintiff has received leave to prosecute as a poor person.

2. After the filing of proof of service of the summons against an infant defendant, no other proceeding shall be taken in the action until a person has been appointed as his guardian for the purpose of the action. Upon the nomination of the defendant, the court must appoint a proper person for that purpose, but if the defendant neglects or refuses to nominate, the court may, on application of the plaintiff, appoint any proper person as a guardian upon the filing of such person's written consent with the clerk. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for costs.

3. Where no guardian has been appointed, as in this section provided, the court shall, at any time before judgment, make such appointment. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for costs.

Former § 41 amended; subd. 3 new. § 41 originally revised from Code Civ. Pro., § 2888; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1295.

§ 27. [Am'd, 1916.] Joinder of parties; interpleader.

1. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this act, all questions as to the joinder of parties shall be determined by the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

2. No action shall be defeated by the nonjoinder or misjoinder of parties. The names of new parties may be added and the names of parties misjoined may be struck out, by order of the court, at any stage of the cause and upon such terms as justice may require.

3. Upon the application of the defendant in an action brought to recover upon a contract or to recover a chattel, the court may

Former § 28 amended and revised to conform to new § 19. § 28 new in former Municipal Court Act.

§ 21. Method of serving summons.

1. The summons may be served upon the defendant within the city of New York in like manner as though the summons issued out of the supreme court, except as otherwise provided in this act or in the rules, provided that it shall not be served by publication.

New. Supersedes former § 31. § 31 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1300. For service of summons in Supreme Court see Code Civ. Pro., § 426 et seq.

§ 22. Who may serve summons or precept; proof of service.

1. Personal service of summons or service of a precept in summary proceedings shall be made by a marshal or by any other person over the age of eighteen years and not a party to the action.

2. Proof of service shall be made by the certificate of the marshal or by the affidavit of the person by whom the service was made; and such certificate or affidavit shall be indorsed upon or annexed to the summons or precept.

3. Within two days after service, the summons, or the summons and complaint if the complaint was served with the summons, must be filed with proof of service in the office of the clerk in the district where the action is pending.

Former § 36 revised and amended to conform to new practice. § 36 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1301.

§ 23. Substitutes for personal service of summons.

An order for the service of a summons upon a defendant residing within the city of New York may be made by the court in the district in which the action is brought, upon satisfactory proof, by the affidavit of a person not a party to the action, that proper and diligent effort has been made to serve the summons upon the defendant, and that the place of his sojourn cannot be found, or if he is within the city that he avoids service so that personal service cannot be made. The contents of the order, the method of service of the summons, the proof of service thereof, and the method of filing the order and the papers on which it was granted shall be the same as though the summons were issued out of the supreme court, unless otherwise provided by the rules; except that the service must be made and the order and papers filed with the clerk within five days after the order is granted. On filing proof of due service, the summons is deemed served, and the same proceedings may be taken thereupon as if personal service thereof had been made, except that no execution against the person shall issue upon a judgment entered upon such service.

Former §§ 32-34 revised and amended to conform to new practice. §§ 32-34 originally revised from Code Civ. Pro., §§ 435-437. See Code Civ. Pro., § 435 et seq.

§ 24. Endorsement upon summons in action for penalty.

If no written complaint is delivered to the defendant in an action for a penalty or forfeiture, the summons and the copy thereof delivered to the defendant must bear an endorsement substantially in the following form: "according to the provisions of," adding such a description of the section of the statute or ordinance as will identify it with convenient certainty.

Former § 38 amended in form. § 38 originally revised from Code Civ. Pro., § 1897.

§ 25. Endorsement upon summons for execution against the person.

If no verified complaint is served with the summons in an action where execution against the person may issue upon the judgment, the summons and the copy delivered to the defendant must bear an endorsement substantially in the following language: "Plaintiff claims defendant is liable to arrest and imprisonment in this case."

Former § 39 amended in form. § 39 new in former Municipal Court Act.

§ 26. Guardian ad litem.

When a guardian is necessary he must be appointed by the court as follows:

1. If the infant is plaintiff, the appointment must be made before the summons is issued, upon the application of the infant, if he is of the age of fourteen years or upwards; if under that age, upon the application of some relative or friend. The consent in writing of the guardian to be appointed and to be liable for costs if he fails in the action, must be filed with the clerk of the court in the district where the action is brought, except that the guardian shall not be liable for costs where the plaintiff has received leave to prosecute as a poor person.

2. After the filing of proof of service of the summons against an infant defendant, no other proceeding shall be taken in the action until a person has been appointed as his guardian for the purpose of the action. Upon the nomination of the defendant, the court must appoint a proper person for that purpose, but if the defendant neglects or refuses to nominate, the court may, on application of the plaintiff, appoint any proper person as a guardian upon the filing of such person's written consent with the clerk. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for costs.

3. Where no guardian has been appointed, as in this section provided, the court shall, at any time before judgment, make such appointment. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for costs.

Former § 41 amended; subd. 8 new. § 41 originally revised from Code Civ. Pro., § 2888; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1295.

§ 27. [Am'd, 1916.] Joinder of parties; interpleader.

1. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this act, all questions as to the joinder of parties shall be determined by the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

2. No action shall be defeated by the nonjoinder or misjoinder of parties. The names of new parties may be added and the names of parties misjoined may be struck out, by order of the court, at any stage of the cause and upon such terms as justice may require.

3. Upon the application of the defendant in an action brought to recover upon a contract or to recover a chattel, the court may make an order of interpleader or an order joining adverse claimants as parties defendant, according to the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

4. The deposition of a party to an action in this court or of a person who expects to be a party to an action about to be brought in this court may be taken at his own instance or at the instance of an adverse party, or by a co-plaintiff or co-defendant at any time before or during the trial, in the same manner as such depositions are taken under the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

Subd. 4 added by L. 1916, ch. 610, in effect Sept. 1, 1916.

Supersedes former §§ 42, 43 and 187. Subdivision 2 is based upon New Jersey Prac. Act of 1912, § 9.

See Code Civ. Pro., § 446 et seq., and § 820.

§ 28. Prosecuting or defending as a poor person.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section or in the rules of the court, a person may obtain leave to prosecute or defend an action as a poor person and to have an attorney assigned to conduct his case, in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court. The petition for such leave may be verified before the clerk of the court in the district where the action is brought, and the certificate of the clerk that he has inquired into the facts of the case and that in his opinion the plaintiff has a prima facie cause of action or that the defendant has a prima facie defense, as the case may be, shall have the same force and effect as the certificate of an attorney.

Supersedes former §§ 45-53. See Code Civ. Pro., § 458 et seq.

NOTE TO TITLE II.— Other former sections have been disposed of as follows: § 29 transferred to § 175; § 35 to § 129; § 44 to § 174; §§ 37 and 40 omitted.

TITLE III.

Provisional remedies and actions to foreclose liens on chattels.

- Article 1. Arrest.
2. Attachment.
3. Replevin.
4. Action to foreclose a lien on a chattel.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Arrest.

- Sec. 29. Grounds of arrest.
30. Procedure.
31. Return of summons; directions in order.
32. Proceedings after arrest; detention of defendant; adjournment of trial.
33. Plaintiff to be notified of arrest.
34. Discharge on giving bail or making deposit; bond for jail liberties.
35. Qualifications of bail.
36. Papers to be delivered by marshal; notice of rejection of bail; notice of justification of bail.
37. Discharge on motion.
38. Motion to reduce bail or to increase security given by plaintiff.

§ 29. Grounds of arrest.

A defendant may be arrested in any case of which this court has jurisdiction and in which he might be arrested were the action brought in the supreme court.

Substitute for former § 56. See Code Civ. Pro., § 549, which covers everything material in former section.

The limitations as to the amount ($100) in subdivisions 3 and 4 of former section are omitted. They do not apply to the cases specified in the other subdivisions, and there is no such limitation applicable to arrest in other courts of record.

Former subdivision 1 omitted because deemed unfair to residents of the State who do not reside in the City of New York.

Former § 55 omitted because covered by new § 151.

§ 30. Procedure.

The procedure in cases of arrest, including the charging and exoneration of bail, shall conform as nearly as may be to the procedure in like cases in the supreme court, except as otherwise provided in this title; and the provisions applicable to a sheriff in such cases shall apply to the marshal. The order of arrest must be issued by the clerk when granted by the court or a justice thereof.

New. Supersedes former § 57 and much of the matter in other sections of this article. See Code Civ. Pro., ch. 7, tit. 1. Affidavit and undertaking to be furnished by plaintiff, see Code Civ. Pro., §§ 557, 559, 560, 1990.

Code Civ. Pro., §§ 591-601 (ch. 7, tit. 1, art. 4) relating to charging and exoneration of bail did not apply to this court (Code Civ. Pro., § 3347, subd. 3); yet the subject matter thereof was not contained in the former act, either expressly or by reference.

As to marshals, see new § 151.

§ 31. Return of summons; directions in order.

When an order of arrest is issued to accompany the summons, the summons must be made returnable to the court immediately upon the arrest; the order of arrest must so direct and must fix the sum in which the defendant may be let to bail.

Former § 58 rewritten. § 58 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1307.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

§ 32. Proceedings after arrest; detention of defendant; adjournment of trial.

1. The marshal, upon arresting the defendant by virtue of such an order, must at the same time serve upon him the summons and a copy of the order of arrest and of the papers upon which it was granted. Unless bail is given or the deposit made as prescribed by law, the marshal upon arresting the defendant must take him forthwith before the court in the district where the action is pending; but if the court is not then in session, he must take him to the jail of the county embracing said district, to be kept there until the next day when the court is in session, on which day the marshal must take him before the court; and thereafter the defendant must be kept in the jail until discharged by law, except that the court or a justice thereof must direct that he be brought into court at the trial and may direct that he be brought into court at any other time.

2. The detention of the defendant shall in no case exceed two days, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, from the time of his first being taken before the court, unless within that time the trial of the action is commenced and continued without unnecessary interruption or unless an adjournment is granted at the defendant's request. An adjournment for more than two days may be granted on application of the plaintiff, provided that the defendant be discharged from custody, in which event the action may proceed and the defendant will be liable to arrest on execution if judgment is recovered against him.

Former § 59 amended in form. Covers also nearly all of former §§ 65, 66, and part of § 193. § 59 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1308; § 65 originally revised from id., § 1814; § 66 originally revised from id., §§ 1315, 1363; § 193, as amended by L. 1910, ch. 183, originally revised from id., §§ 1362, 1363.

§ 33. Plaintiff to be notified of arrest.

The marshal making the arrest must immediately give notice thereof to the plaintiff and indorse on the order of arrest and subscribe a certificate, stating the time of serving and of giving notice to the plaintiff.

Former § 61 retained. § 61 originally revised from L. 1881, ch. 410, § 1310. Former § 60 omitted as unnecessary.

§ 34. Discharge on giving bail or making deposit; bond for jail liberties.

A defendant may be discharged from arrest by giving bail or depositing the sum of money specified in the order of arrest, or, when actually confined in jail by virtue of an order of arrest and judgment has been rendered in the action, he may at his election be admitted to the liberties of the jail on giving the necessary undertaking therefor, whether execution against his person has issued or not.

Covers all of former § 64 that is now material in view of new § 30. Includes last sentence of former § 65. §§ 64, 65 originally revised from L. 1881, ch. 410, §§ 1313, 1314. For bail and deposit in Supreme Court practice, see Code Civ. Pro., §§ 573-576, 582 et seq.; and for undertaking for jail liberties, see id., § 149 et seq.

Former §§ 62 and 67 omitted as unnecessary. Former § 63 covered by new § 30; former § 65 covered by new §§ 32 and 34. The former practice provided for three bail bonds.

§ 35. Qualifications of bail.

The qualifications of bail shall be the same as those prescribed in like cases in the supreme court, except that each of them must be a resident of and a freeholder or a householder within the city of New York.

Supersedes former § 64. See Code Civ. Pro., § 579.

§ 36. Papers to be delivered by marshal; notice of rejection of bail; notice of justification of bail.

1. Within two days after bail is given the marshal must deliver to the plaintiff or his attorney copies certified by the marshal of the order of arrest, return and undertaking.

2. Notice that plaintiff does not accept the bail must be served upon the marshal within two days after said copies are delivered. Notice of justification of bail must be served within two days after the notice aforesaid, and the time of justification shall be not more than three days after the service of the notice thereof.

Code Civ. Pro., §§ 577-578 modified. For justification of bail see Code Civ. Pro., §§ 580-581.

§ 37. Discharge on motion.

The defendant may move for his discharge from arrest as follows:

1. Without notice, on the plaintiff's appearance in court.

2. On two days' notice, at any time before judgment.

3. On one day's notice, if the plaintiff fails to issue execution within twenty-four hours after he is entitled to do so.

Substitute for former § 68. See Code Civ. Pro., §§ 567-568. Former § 69 omitted because covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 564. Former § 70 omitted because covered by various Code provisions adopted by this article.

§ 38. Motion to reduce bail or to increase security given by plaintiff.

A motion to reduce the amount of bail or to increase the amount of the security given by the plaintiff, or both, may be made by the defendant on two days' notice at any time before judgment.

New. See Code Civ. Pro., §§ 567-568.

Sec. 39. In what actions granted.

40. Grounds; affidavit.
41. Issuance and contents of warrant.
42. Undertaking by plaintiff.
43. Execution of warrant; inventory.
44. Property subject to levy.
45. Manner of making levy; effect of levy and certificate of sale.
46. Certificate of defendant's interest in property.
47. Actions by marshal.
48. Service of summons, warrant and inventory.
49. Undertaking by defendant to reclaim property.
50. Claim by third person; bond and delivery thereupon.
51. Judgment on bond.
52. Action on undertaking when warrant vacated.
53. Return by marshal attaching.
54. Vacating or modifying warrant and increasing security.
55. Judgment when summons not personally served.
56. Exception to and justification of sureties; reclaimer of attached property.

§ 39. In what actions granted.

In an action of which this court has jurisdiction, a warrant of attachment against the property of one or more defendants may be granted on the application of the plaintiff, if such a warrant might be granted were the action brought in the supreme court.

Supersedes former § 73. Substitutes "may be granted" for "must be granted," as the remedy is essentially discretionary. See Code Civ. Pro., §§ 635-637.

§ 40. Grounds; affidavit.

To entitle the plaintiff to a warrant of attachment he must show by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court:

1. That a cause of action for which a warrant of attachment may be granted exists against the defendant; and if the action is based upon a breach of contract, that the plaintiff is entitled to recover a sum stated, in excess of all counterclaims known to him.

2. That the defendant is either a foreign corporation or not a resident of the state; or, if the defendant is a natural person and a resident of the city of New York, that he has departed or is about to depart therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed with the like intent; or, if the defendant is a natural person or a domestic corporation, that he or it has removed or is about to remove property from the city of New York with intent to defraud his or its creditors, or has assigned, disposed of or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of or secrete property with the like intent; or, where for the purpose of procuring credit or the extension of credit, the defendant has made a false statement in writing under his own hand and signature, or under the hand and signature of a duly authorized agent made with his knowledge and acquiescence, as to his financial responsibility or standing; or, that the defendant, being a natural person of full age and a resident of the state, has been continuously without the state for the space of six months or more immediately before the application, and either that he has not made a designation of a person upon whom to serve a summons in his behalf as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty of the code of civil procedure, or that a designation so made no longer remains in force.

The affidavit must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court in the district in which the action is brought.

Former § 74 amended in form. § 74 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1317.

§ 41. Issuance and contents of warrant.

The warrant may be granted by the court or a justice thereof and must be issued by the clerk, when the summons is issued or at any time after the commencement of the action and before final judgment. It must briefly recite the grounds of the attachment and must require the marshal to whom it is delivered to attach and safely keep so much of the defendant's personal property as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, together with the costs and expenses of the action, and forthwith make return of his proceeding thereon to the court. The amount of the plaintiff's demand must be specified in the warrant.

Former § 75 amended so as to conform to new practice and omit unnecessary details. § 75 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 131a. Attachment may be granted at any time before judgment.

§ 42. Undertaking by plaintiff.

Before granting the warrant the court or a justice thereof must require the plaintiff to give an undertaking to the defendant, with one or more sureties approved by the court or a justice thereof to the effect that if the defendant recovers judgment or the warrant of attachment is vacated, the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be awarded to the defendant and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least twice the amount of the plaintiff's demand as stated in the warrant and in no case less than two hundred dollars, and that if the plaintiff recovers judgment he will pay to the defendant all money received by him from property taken by virtue of the warrant or upon any bond given therefor, above the amount of the judgment and interest thereon.

Former § 76 retained with formal amendments. § 76 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 131b. The undertaking affords greater security to defendant than that prescribed by Code Civ. Pro., § 640.

§ 43. Execution of warrant; inventory.

The marshal to whom the warrant of attachment is delivered must obey the directions therein contained and must immediately make an inventory of the property attached, stating therein the estimated value of each article or item.

§§ 43-45 superseded former §§ 77, 78. § 77 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1320; Code Civ. Pro., §§ 147, 148. § 7 originally revised from Code Civ. Pro., § 649. See Code Civ. Pro., §§ 644-649, 654.

§ 44. Property subject to levy.

An attachment may be levied upon any property within the city of New York upon which an attachment may be levied in an action in the supreme court, except real property and interests therein.

See note to § 43.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

§ 45. Manner of making levy; effect of levy and certificate of sale.

The manner of making the levy, the effect thereof and the effect of the marshal's certificate of sale, shall be governed by the provisions applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

See note to § 43.

§ 46. Certificate of defendant's interest in property.

Upon application of a marshal holding a warrant of attachment, a certificate of the defendant's interest in property or in a debt or demand owing to him must be furnished to the marshal, and a person may be ordered to attend before the court and submit to an examination in respect thereto, according to the provisions applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

Supersedes former §§ 79-80. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 650-651.

§ 47. Actions by marshal.

The duties and powers of a marshal with respect to the collection of debts, effects and things in action attached by him, and with respect to the maintenance by him of actions and special proceedings to reduce personal property to his possession, shall be the same as those of a sheriff, subject to the provisions of section one hundred and fifty-one of this act.

Supersedes former § 81. See Code of Civ. Pro., § 655. Original § 82 omitted because covered by new § 151 of this Act and by § 709 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

§ 48. Service of summons, warrant and inventory.

Immediately upon making the inventory the marshal must serve the summons, if it has not yet been served, together with the warrant of attachment and inventory, upon the defendant by delivering to him personally a copy of each, if he can with reasonable diligence be found within the city, or, if he cannot be so found, by leaving a copy of each, certified by the marshal, at the last place of residence of the defendant in the city, with a person of suitable age and discretion, or, if such person cannot be found there, by posting them on the outer door, and also depositing another copy of each in the postoffice, inclosed in a sealed post-paid wrapper, directed to the defendant at his residence; or, if the defendant has no place of residence in the city, by delivering them to the person in whose possession the property attached is found.

If personal service of the summons upon the defendant has previously been made, the marshal must serve the warrant and inventory as herein provided.

Former § 83 amended so as to conform to the new practice of serving summons. § 83 originally derived from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1321.

§ 49. Undertaking by defendant to reclaim property.

The defendant or his attorney or agent may at any time before judgment is rendered, execute and deliver to the marshal an undertaking to the plaintiff in a sum specified therein, at least twice the value of the property attached, as stated in the inventory, with one or more sureties approved by a justice of the court, and to the effect that if judgment is rendered against the defendant and an execution is issued thereon within six months after the giving of the undertaking, the property attached shall be produced to satisfy the execution. Thereupon the marshal must deliver the property to the defendant.

Former § 84 slightly amended. § 84 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1322. The bond mentioned in Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 658-a, 687 and 688 is different.

§ 50. Claim by third person; bond and delivery thereupon.

If a person not a party to the action claims any property attached, which is not reclaimed by the defendant as prescribed in the last section, he may at any time after the seizure and before execution is issued, execute and file with the clerk a bond to the plaintiff, with one or more sureties approved by a justice, in a penalty at least twice the value of the property claimed, and conditioned that, in an action upon the bond to be commenced within three months thereafter, the claimant will establish that he was the general owner of the property claimed at the time of the seizure; or, if he fails so to do, that he will pay to the plaintiff the value thereof, with interest. The marshal must thereupon deliver the property claimed to the claimant.

Former § 85 slightly amended. § 85 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1323. Procedure prescribed by §§ 50-52 more simple than that of the Supreme Court.

§ 51. Judgment on bond.

A judgment for the plaintiff in an action on a bond given as prescribed in the last section must award to him the value of the property seized and delivered to the claimant, with interest thereon from the time of the delivery. If the amount so recovered exceeds the amount which the plaintiff recovers in the action in which the warrant of attachment was issued, he is liable to the defendant for the excess.

Former § 86 slightly amended. § 86 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1324.

§ 52. Action on undertaking when warrant vacated.

If the warrant of attachment is vacated or annulled the defendant may maintain an action upon the bond and undertaking specified in the last two sections, in his own name, in the same manner and with the like effect as the plaintiff might have done if the warrant had remained in full force.

Former § 87. § 87 originally revised from L. 1882, chap. 410, § 1325.

§ 53. Return by marshal attaching.

The marshal executing the warrant of attachment must at the time when and the place where it is returnable make a return thereto under his hand, stating all his proceedings thereon. He must deliver to the clerk, with the return, each bond or undertaking delivered to him, pursuant to any of the foregoing provisions of this article, and a copy, certified by him, of the inventory of the property attached. The return must state the manner in which the warrant and inventory were served, and, if they were served otherwise than by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally, the reason therefor and the name of the person to whom the copy was delivered, unless his name is unknown to the marshal, in which case the return must describe him so as to identify him as nearly as may be.

Former § 88 slightly amended. § 88 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1326.

§ 54. Vacating or modifying warrant and increasing security.

The court may of its own motion vacate a warrant of attachment at any time on the ground that the issuance of the warrant was unauthorized. A motion to vacate or modify a warrant of attachment or to increase the security given by the plaintiff may be made on at least one day's notice. In all other respects the motion shall be governed by the provisions applicable to such motions in the supreme court.

Supersedes former § 89. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 682, 683, 686. Former § 90 omitted as unnecessary.

§ 55. Judgment when summons not personally served.

If the defendant has not appeared generally, and the summons has been served otherwise than personally, and his property has been duly attached by virtue of a warrant which has not been vacated, the judgment is only presumptive evidence of his indebtedness in an action subsequently brought.

Former § 91 amended; last sentence transferred to § 135, subd. 3. § 91 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1329.

§ 56. Exception to and justification of sureties; reclaimer of attached property.

The provisions of this act contained in sections sixty-two to sixty-six, inclusive, shall apply as nearly as may be to cases of attachment of property.

Former § 92 amended.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Replevin.

- Sec. 57. When action of replevin will lie.
58. When chattel may be replevied: affidavit and undertaking.
59. Requisition to replevy.
60. How executed and served.
61. Return to requisition.
62. Exception to and justification of sureties.
63. Defendant's reclaimer of chattel.
64. Qualifications of sureties.
65. Method of justifying.
66. Allowance of undertaking.
67. Practice in supreme court applicable.
68. Third party may interplead and defend.
69. Defendant may demand judgment for return of chattel.

§ 57. When action of replevin will lie.

An action to recover a chattel, with or without damages for the wrongful taking, withholding or detention thereof, is maintainable, when within the jurisdiction of this court, in the cases where such an action is maintainable in the supreme court.

Supersedes former § 95. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1690-1692.

§ 58. When chattel may be replevied; affidavit and undertaking.

At the time of issuing summons or at any time before joinder of issue or, if the defendant makes default in pleading, at any time before entry of judgment, the plaintiff may cause the chattel for the recovery of which the action is brought, to be replevied by a marshal. For that purpose he must file with the clerk an affidavit and undertaking which shall be governed by the provisions of law applicable to such affidavits and undertakings in the supreme court, except as otherwise expressly provided in this act. The sureties on the undertaking must be approved by the court, or a justice thereof, as hereinafter provided.

Supersedes former §§ 96-100. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1694-1699.

§ 59. Requisition to replevy.

Upon submission of the affidavit and undertaking, the court or a justice thereof, must endorse upon or attach to the affidavit a requisition requiring the marshal to replevy the property described in the affidavit. The requisition must be issued by the clerk. The affidavit, undertaking and requisition must be delivered to the marshal.

Former § 101 amended. Section 101 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1333. Provisions requiring return day to be stated in requisition and relating to summons and return day thereof, omitted as inapplicable to new practice.

§ 60. How executed and served.

The requisition to replevy shall be executed and the requisition, affidavit and undertaking shall be served in the same manner as if the action were in the supreme court, subject to the provisions of section one hundred and fifty-one of this act. If personal service of the summons has not been previously made, the summons must be served together with, and in the same manner as, the requisition, affidavit and undertaking.

Supersedes former §§ 102-103. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1700-1701.

§ 61. Return to requisition.

The marshal must make a prompt return to the requisition, stating all his proceedings thereon, and file it, with the affidavit, undertaking and requisition with the clerk. The return must state the manner in which the summons, affidavit, requisition and undertaking were served and the particulars of the service.

Former § 105 amended. Section 105 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1335. Reference to return day of summons omitted.

§ 62. Exception to and justification of sureties.

Within three days after the chattel has been replevied, the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff or his attorney or upon the marshal a written notice that the defendant excepts to the sureties; otherwise, he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. If such notice is served upon the marshal he must immediately deliver it to the plaintiff or his attorney. Within three days after the service of such notice the plaintiff must serve upon the defendant or his attorney a notice that the sureties will justify before the court at a specified time which shall be not more than three days after the service of the notice of justification. At the time specified the sureties, or other sureties on a new undertaking to the same effect as the first, must appear and justify before the court.

Former § 106 amended. L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1336. Reference to return day of summons omitted and time fixed for serving notices.

§ 63. Defendant's reclaimer of chattel.

If the defendant does not except to the sureties he may file with the clerk, within four days after the chattel has been replevied, a notice that he requires the return of the chattel, and with the notice he must file the following papers:

1. An affidavit containing an allegation either that the defendant is the owner of the chattel or that he is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof by virtue of a special property therein, the facts with respect to which must be set forth.

2. An undertaking executed by at least two sureties or a duly authorized fidelity or surety company to the effect that they or it are bound in a specified sum, not less than twice the value of the chattel as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if delivery thereof is adjudged, and for the payment to him of any sum which the judgment awards against the defendant.

If the plaintiff has stated separately in his affidavit the value of one or more chattels, or classes of chattels, the defendant may require a delivery of any or all of the chattels replevied, and the undertaking shall be conditioned accordingly.

Upon filing the undertaking the defendant must serve upon the plaintiff or the latter's attorney a copy of the undertaking and a notice that the sureties named therein will justify before the court at a time specified, which shall be not more than three days after the service of the notice.

Former § 107 rewritten. § 107 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1704, 2925; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1337.

§ 64. Qualification of sureties.

A surety may be either an individual or a fidelity or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety. Each individual surety must be:

1. A resident of the city of New York and a freeholder or a householder therein.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

2. Worth twice the sum for which he becomes obligated in the undertaking, exclusive of property exempt from execution.

Former § 108 amended in form. § 108 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 579, 2926; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1338.

§ 65. Method of justifying.

For the purposes of justification, each individual surety must attend before the court at the time and place mentioned in the notice of justification and be examined on oath, touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the court in its discretion deems proper. If required by the adverse party, the examination must be reduced to writing and subscribed by the surety.

A fidelity or surety company shall justify through its officers or attorney in the manner required by law.

Former § 109 rewritten. § 109 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 580, 2926; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1338. Last sentence new. See Code of Civ. Pro., § 811.

§ 66. Allowance of undertaking.

If the court finds the surety sufficient, it must annex the examination to the undertaking, endorse its allowance thereon and cause them to be filed with the clerk.

Former § 110 amended by omitting the words "or bail." § 110 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 581, 2926; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1338.

§ 67. Practice in supreme court applicable.

The provisions of law applicable to an action of replevin in the supreme court, in so far as they concern the duties and liabilities of a sheriff with respect to the taking, keeping and delivery of a chattel replevied, the proceedings upon a claim of title by a third person, the indemnity to be furnished by the plaintiff to the sheriff upon such a claim, the defendant's answer of title in a third person, the method of ascertaining damages on the defendant's default, the character and contents of the verdict or judgment and of the execution, and the respective rights of action of the plaintiff and defendant upon undertakings, shall apply to like matters in this court in so far as such provisions can be made applicable thereto and except as otherwise provided in this act; and subject to like exception, all such provisions relating to a sheriff shall apply to a marshal, as prescribed in section one hundred and fifty-one of this act.

An undertaking to indemnify a marshal against a claim made by a third person to the chattel replevied must be substantially the same as that given to indemnify a sheriff in a similar case, except that the amount thereof need not be more than double the value of the chattel claimed and except that the sureties must possess the qualifications stated in section sixty-four of this act.

Supersedes former §§ 104, 111, 115, 116, 118, 120, 124, 126. Section 104 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1702; § 111 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1706; § 112 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1707; § 113 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1709; § 114 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1710; § 115 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1711; § 116 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1723; § 118 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1731; § 120 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., §§ 1726-7; § 121 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1728; § 122 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1729; § 123 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1730; § 124 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1731; § 126 is covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1733.

The following former sections have likewise been omitted: § 119, because it is a duplicate of Code of Civ. Pro., § 1722, and contains merely a rule of substantive law; § 125, because unnecessary by reason of new § 151 and Code of Civ. Pro., § 1732; § 127 because it is merely a rule of substantive law and is covered by Code of Civ. Pro., § 1734, when read with new § 151; § 128, because it is merely a rule of substantive law and is a duplicate of Code of Civ. Pro., § 1735; §§ 129–131, because unnecessary.

§ 68. Third party may interplead and defend.

At any time before a chattel which has been replevied is actually delivered to either party, a person not a party to the action who claims a right to the possession of the chattel so replevied or any part thereof, which right is claimed to have existed at the time when the said chattel was replevied, may make an affidavit and deliver the same to the court, stating that he makes such claim without collusion with the defendant, specifying in such affidavit the chattel to which he makes claim, setting forth the facts upon which his right depends, and praying to be impleaded as a defendant in the action. The court may thereupon grant leave to said party to appear and defend, and the provisions of this act in relation to the defendant originally proceeded against, so far as applicable, shall apply to the said party, and the court may in its discretion make such order or direct such delivery of the property as may be just, and thereupon the entire controversy may be determined in the action. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed to affect the right of any party to maintain a separate action or to recover damages for the wrongful taking or detention of a chattel, unless judgment is awarded against him on the merits. In that case the court may grant leave to said third party to appear and defend, and the provisions of this act in relation to the defendant originally proceeded against them apply to said party.

Former § 115-a amended in form. § 115-a added by L. 1903, ch. 431.

§ 69. Defendant may demand judgment for return of chattel.

Where a chattel has been replevied and the defendant has not required the return thereof pending the action, he may in his answer demand judgment for the return thereof, either with or without damages for the taking, withholding or detention.

Former § 117 retained with formal changes. § 117 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1342.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Action to foreclose a lien on a chattel.

Sec. 70. What deemed lien on chattel.

71. Warrant of seizure.

72. Affidavit and undertaking.

73. When other actions not maintainable.

74. Judgment.

75. Marshal's power under execution.

76. Exception to and justification of sureties; reclaimer of chattel.

77. Application of this article.

§ 70. What deemed lien on chattel.

For the purpose of this article a chattel mortgage to secure the purchase price of chattels as well as a contract of conditional sale of personal property and a hiring of personal property, where title is not to vest in the person hiring until payment of a certain sum, shall be deemed a lien upon a chattel; and an action to foreclose such a lien may be maintained.

Part of former §§ 137 and 139. § 137 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 1787; § 139 amended by L. 1910, ch. 542.

§ 71. Warrant of seizure.

In an action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel, a warrant commanding the marshal to seize the chattel and safely keep it to abide the judgment, may be granted by the court, or a justice thereof, and must be issued by the clerk. Sections sixty and sixty-one of this act shall apply, as nearly as may be, to a proceeding taken under this article.

Former § 138 amended. § 138 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1330. References to warrant of attachment are omitted, thus avoiding conflicting decisions that were rendered under former procedure.

§ 72. Affidavit and undertaking.

To entitle the plaintiff to such a warrant he must file with the clerk an undertaking and must show by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that the plaintiff has a lien on the chattel, the amount thereof and the facts out of which the same arose and that the plaintiff is not in possession of the chattel. The affidavit must contain a description of the chattels so that they can be readily identified. The provisions applicable to an undertaking to procure a warrant of attachment shall apply, so far as practicable, to the undertaking required by this section.

New.

§ 73. When other actions not maintainable.

No action of conversion or replevin arising on an instrument mentioned in section seventy shall be maintained against the conditional vendee, lessee or mortgagor.

Part of former § 139 amended. § 139 amended by L. 1910, ch. 542. Actions against transferees of chattel permitted.

§ 74. Judgment.

In an action to foreclose a lien, the judgment in favor of the plaintiff must specify the amount of the lien and, when the chattel is not in the custody of the marshal by virtue of a warrant, must command the marshal to seize the chattel. The judgment must direct a sale by a marshal of the chattel after fifteen days' personal service of the notice of sale upon the defendant, unless such service shall be dispensed with by order of the court, to satisfy the lien and the costs, if any, in like manner as where a marshal sells personal property by virtue of an execution, and the application by him of the proceeds of the sale, less his fees and expenses, to the payment of the amount of the lien and the costs of the action. It must also provide for the payment of the surplus, if any, to the owner of the chattel, and for the safekeeping of the surplus, if any, by the clerk of the court, until it is claimed by him. If a defendant upon whom the summons is personally served is liable for the amount of the lien or for any part thereof, the plaintiff may also have judgment for the deficiency, if any. The execution to be issued to the marshal shall be in accordance with the terms of the judgment.

Former § 141 amended. § 141 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1739, 1740. Latter portion of first sentence new, thus permitting actions without a warrant of seizure. § 140 omitted.

§ 75. Marshal's power under execution.

For the purpose of seizing a chattel by virtue of an execution, the power of a marshal is the same as where he is required to replevy a chattel.

New.

§ 76. Exception to and justification of sureties; reclaimer of chattel.

Sections sixty-two to sixty-six, inclusive, of this act shall apply, as nearly as may be, to a proceeding taken under this article.

New.

§ 77. Application of this article.

The provisions of this article shall not affect any right or remedy to foreclose or satisfy a lien upon a chattel without action, and do not apply to a case where another mode of enforcing a lien upon a chattel is specially prescribed by law.

Former § 142 slightly amended. § 142 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 1741.

TITLE IV.

Pleadings.

- Sec. 78. Pleadings; bills of particulars; special appearance.
79. Joinder and severance of causes of action.
80. Judgment by default.
81. Offer of judgment.
82. Complaint.
83. Answer; contents thereof.
84. Counterclaim.
85. Joinder and severance of counterclaims.
86. Amount recoverable on counterclaim.
87. Reply to counterclaim.
88. Objections to jurisdiction and to pleadings.
89. Objections which may be taken by answer.
90. Disposal of objections.
91. Judgment upon the pleadings.
92. Signature to instrument; when deemed genuine.
93. Construction and amendments of pleadings, judgment and process.
94. Order that issues be tried unnecessary in action against corporation.

§ 78. Pleadings; bills of particulars; special appearance.

Pleadings in actions may be oral or written, verified or unverified, except that the pleadings in an action to establish a mechanic's lien must be verified. Pleadings shall consist of complaint and answer and, when ordered, a reply.

1. When an action is commenced by service of a summons only, a statement of the nature and substance of the plaintiff's cause of action shall be endorsed upon or annexed to the summons.

2. Issue must be joined within the time limited by the summons; provided, however, that when the last day falls on Saturday the defendant may answer on the next business day.

3. If a written complaint is served with the summons a written answer must be filed; and if the complaint is verified, the answer must be verified; provided, however, that in an action where the amount claimed is one hundred dollars or less, the defendant, if he appears in person, may answer orally. When a defendant answers orally a statement of the nature and the substance of the answer shall be endorsed upon or annexed to the summons. The address of the defendant, or the office and post-office address of his attorney, shall be endorsed upon the summons.

4. At any time before judgment, the court may direct the filing of a written pleading, verified or unverified.

5. On or before the defendant's last day to answer, his time to move or answer may be extended by filing with the clerk a written stipulation of the parties, or by order of the court upon cause shown.

6. The original or a copy of a contract or other writing on which a cause of action or a defense or a counterclaim is founded may be filed with the pleading and shall be deemed a part of the pleading. Within three days after service of a written demand by either party, the adverse party shall file with the clerk the original or sworn copy of any such contract or other writing specified in such demand. If the paper is not duly filed, the court may order that it be filed and may exclude it from evidence if not filed accordingly.

7. In a proper case a written demand for a bill or particulars of the complaint or counterclaim may be filed with the clerk. The defendant may file his demand at the time of answering.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

The plaintiff may file his demand three days after the counterclaim is interposed. In either case a bill of particulars must be filed with the clerk within three days after the demand is filed and the court upon motion or notice may preclude the party failing to file such bill of particulars from giving evidence of the part or parts of his affirmative allegation of which particulars have not been filed. The court may order a written bill of particulars, with or without verification, to be filed and served by the plaintiff or by the defendant interposing a counterclaim.

8. For the purpose of raising a question not involving the merits of the action, a party may appear specially by filing with the clerk, on or before the last day for answering, a notice of special appearance stating the particular purpose for which he appears. In that event the case shall be set down for hearing, and the party thus appearing need not plead further until directed to do so by the court.

Former § 145 rewritten. §§ 145 amended by L. 1908, ch. 495; L. 1911, ch. 73; originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 2935, 3126, 3207; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1346. Practice changed and new matter added. Omits reference to demurrers as they are abolished. (See also §§ 88 and 89.) Subdivision 6 supersedes former § 165.

§ 79. Joinder and severance of causes of action.

The plaintiff may include in the same complaint any cause of action of which the court has jurisdiction, to the end that all matters of difference between the respective parties may, so far as practicable, be determined in one action; but if it appears to the court that causes of action so joined should not be tried or disposed of together, the court may order them to be tried separately, or that the action be severed, and may make such other and further orders as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof.

New. Supersedes former § 146, except the last sentence thereof, which is transferred to new § 136. Section is in accordance with recommendations of the New York Board of Statutory Consolidation. (See Report of Board of Stat. Consol., 1912, pp. 11, 105.)

§ 80. Judgment by default.

If the defendant fails to answer within the prescribed time, judgment for the plaintiff may be taken by default, without application to the court, in a case in which the complaint or the statement endorsed upon or annexed to the summons sets forth one or more causes of action upon which a judgment by default may thus be entered in an action in the supreme court.

In such a case, if a verified complaint has been filed and served with the summons, the clerk shall enter judgment forthwith; otherwise the clerk must at plaintiff's request ascertain the amount due and enter judgment therefor in the manner prescribed for like cases in the supreme court. In all other cases where the defendant makes default in pleading the plaintiff can recover judgment only on application to the court and proof of his cause of action.

Supersedes former § 147. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 420, 1212, 1213.

§ 81. Offer of judgment.

At the time of answering the defendant may file with the clerk a written offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for a sum of money, or for property therein specified, with costs. If there are two or more defendants, and the action can be severed, a like offer may be made by one or more of may impose costs; and if the party fails to amend, the defective pleading or part of pleading may be struck out.

Adopted from former § 145, subds. 3, 4. § 145 amended by L. 1908, ch. 495; L. 1911, ch. 73; originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 2935, 3126, 3207; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1346.

§ 91. Judgment upon the pleadings.

If either party is entitled to judgment upon the pleadings, the court may, on motion at any time after issue joined, give judgment accordingly.

New. From Code of Civ. Pro., § 547.

§ 92. Signature to instrument; when deemed genuine.

A signature to a written instrument which is pleaded shall be taken as admitted unless the party sought to be charged thereby files with the clerk, within eight days after joinder of issue, a specific denial of the genuineness of the signature and a demand that it be proved. Such denial and demand by a defendant may be included in his answer.

New. Adapted from Mass. Rev. L., ch. 173, § 86.

§ 93. Construction and amendments of pleadings, judgment and process.

1. The allegations of a pleading must be liberally construed for the purpose of doing substantial justice between the parties.

2. At any stage of the cause the court must allow amendment of any summons, process, mandate, pleading, order or judgment, including a petition, precept, answer and final order in a summary proceeding, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby; and as a condition thereof may impose such terms as may be just.

3. Upon like terms the court may direct that a return made by a marshal or other officer be amended in matter of form, either before or after judgment.

Supersedes former § 166 (the provisions of which as to demurrers and adjournments are omitted) and § 170. § 166 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2944; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1347. § 170 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 519.

The subject matter of amendments embraced in former § 166 is much enlarged by subd. 2.

By force of new § 16 many Code provisions as to amendments, curing of defects by verdict or judgment, and disregard of unsubstantial errors, apply to the Municipal Court; among them are Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 721-723, 727-730.

Subdivision 3, relating to amendment of a return, is taken from Code of Civ. Pro., § 725. It confers power; hence would not be incorporated by new § 16.

§ 94. Order that issues be tried unnecessary in action against corporation.

In an action against a corporation, an order directing that the issues presented by the pleadings be tried shall not be required.

New. Excludes provisions of second sentence of Code of Civ. Pro., § 1778.

Note to Title IV.—In addition to the former sections mentioned in the notes to this title as having been superseded or omitted, the following sections have likewise been omitted: §§ 163 and 164 because covered by Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 524, 525; § 169 because covered by Code of Civ. Proc., §§ 530, 532, 533; §§ 171-173 because covered by Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 539-541; § 174 because covered by Code of Civ. Pro., § 508; §§ 175-177 because covered by Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1775-1777; § 178 because first part is covered by new § 6, subd. 2, and latter part is covered by Code of Crim. Pro., §§ 884, 906; § 187 because covered by Code of Civ. Pro., § 820, which is adopted by new § 27, subd. 3.

TITLE V.

Proceedings between joinder of issue and trial.

- Article 1. Bringing cause on for trial; adjournments; subpoenas; attachment against and liability of defaulting witness.
2. Commission to take testimony; depositions; physical examination.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Bringing cause on for trial; adjournments; subpoenas; attachment against and liability of defaulting witness.

Sec. 95. How cause brought on for trial; notice of trial.

96. Adjournment of trial.

97. Subpoena.

98. Service of subpoena.

99. Attachment against defaulting witness.

100. Liability of defaulting witness.

§ 95. How cause brought on for trial; notice of trial.

Upon joinder of issue the clerk shall place the case upon a general calendar. Where either party appears in person, the clerk shall fix a date for trial not less than five nor more than eight days after joinder of issue, and shall immediately notify the parties by mail of such date. Unless otherwise provided by the rules, where both parties appear by attorney either party may serve a notice on the other fixing a date for trial not less than five nor more than eight days after the service of such notice, and shall file such notice, with proof of service thereof, with the clerk, who shall thereupon place the case on the calendar for trial. When a jury trial is demanded and no day is fixed for the attendance of a jury within the time limited as above provided, the clerk shall set the case down for trial at the earliest practicable date on which a jury will be in attendance, and shall notify the parties or their attorneys by mail of such date.

New. The section institutes an entirely new practice.

§ 96. Adjournment of trial.

The trial of an action may be adjourned:

1. By the court for good cause shown and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem just.

2. By stipulation of the parties, to be filed with the clerk; or upon request of the plaintiff where the defendant has made default or upon consent of the parties in open court.

Former § 103 rewritten. § 193 amended by L. 1910, ch. 153; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1362, 1363. Limitation on adjournments abolished. The provision concerning proceedings in case of arrest have been transferred to § 32. Former §§ 194 and 195 omitted.

§ 97. Subpoena.

A subpoena requiring a witness to appear and testify on the trial of an action or a special proceeding, shall be issued on the demand of either party, by the clerk of the court in the district where the action is pending; but when a party is represented by an attorney, the latter may issue the subpoena and shall subscribe thereto his name and his office and post-office address. The subpoena may be served anywhere in the city of New York and may require the witness to bring with him any book or paper relating to the merits of the action.

Former § 196 rewritten. § 196 amended by L. 1910, ch. 538, originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2969; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1370.

§ 98. Service of subpoena.

A subpoena may be served by any person over the age of eighteen years by delivering a copy thereof to the witness personally and by paying or tendering to him a fee of fifty cents for one day's attendance at court. No mileage need be paid or tendered to the witness.

Former § 197 amended. § 197 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2970; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1870. Fee increased from twenty-five to fifty cents, and mileage eliminated.

§ 99. Attachment against defaulting witness.

1. Upon satisfactory proof by affidavit or otherwise that a person duly subpoenaed has refused or neglected to obey the subpoena, and upon the oath of the party in whose behalf the person was subpoenaed, or his attorney, that the testimony of such person is material, the court must issue a warrant of attachment directed generally to any marshal, to compel the attendance of such person.

2. Such a warrant of attachment must be executed in the same manner as an order of arrest. The fees of the marshal for serving it must be paid by the person against whom it is issued unless he shows just cause or a reasonable excuse for his omission to attend, in which case the party procuring the warrant must pay them and add them to his costs if he recover any.

Former §§ 198, 199 amended. §§ 198, 199 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 2971, 2972.

§ 100. Liability of defaulting witness.

A person duly subpoenaed who neglects or refuses to obey the subpoena, is liable to the party in whose behalf he was subpoenaed for all damages which the party sustains by reason of the neglect or refusal, and fifty dollars in addition thereto, and is subject to any fine or punishment which may be imposed in accordance with the provisions of law governing contempts punishable civilly.

Former § 200 amended in form. § 200 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2979.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Commission to take testimony; depositions; physical examinations.

Sec. 101. Commission to take testimony.

- 102. When commission may issue.
- 103. Open commission.
- 104. Power of commissioner.
- 105. Execution and return of commission.
- 106. Suppression of deposition.
- 107. Deposition to perpetuate testimony.
- 108. The same — Affidavit on application.
- 109. Order for examination.
- 110. Witnesses' fees; punishment for disobeying order.
- 111. Service of order and affidavit.
- 112. Adjournment of examination.
- 113. Witness confined in prison.
- 114. Examination; manner of taking and returning deposition; refusal to answer.
- 115. When deposition may be read in evidence.
- 116. Effect of deposition.
- 117. Physical examination.

§ 101. Commission to take testimony.

When it appears by affidavit upon the application of either party to an action or special proceeding that the testimony of one or more witnesses, not within the city of New York, is material to the applicant's case, the court shall issue a commission to a competent person named therein, authorizing him to examine under oath the witness or witnesses named therein upon interrogatories annexed to the commission and to be settled by the court or by the written consent of the parties, and to take and certify the deposition of each witness and return the same and the commission by mail, addressed to the clerk.

§§ 101 and 102 supersede former §§ 205, 207, 208. Only one commissioner is now provided. Provision that commission may issue in a special proceeding is new.

§ 102. When commission may issue.

Such a commission may issue:

1. When the defendant has made default in pleading and the testimony is required upon the assessment of damages.
2. Before joinder of issue when there is reason to apprehend that before issue is joined, and an application for a commission can thereafter be made, the witness will die or become unable to give his testimony or remove so that his testimony cannot be taken.
3. When issue has been joined in an action or special proceeding and the testimony is material to the applicant in the prosecution or defense thereof.
4. When an appeal or a motion for a new trial is pending and the testimony may be material to the applicant upon a new trial.

Subdivision 2, of § 102, is new and is taken from Code of Civ. Pro., § 888, subdv. 4. Subdivision 4, of § 102, is new and is taken from Code of Civ. Pro., § 888, subdv. 3.

§ 103. Open commission.

When issue has been joined in an action or special proceeding and application has been made as provided in section one hundred and one, a commission may, in the discretion of the court, issue without written interrogatories, or partly upon written interrogatories and partly upon oral questions.

Former § 206 rewritten to conform to Code of Civ. Pro., § 893. § 206 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2981; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1368.

§ 104. Power of commissioner.

When a commission is executed within the state, the commissioner shall have the same power to issue a subpoena, to swear a witness and to compel his attendance that this court has in an action pending before it.

Former § 214 amended. § 214 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2987.

§ 105. Execution and return of commission.

Except as otherwise provided in this act or in the rules, all matters with respect to the issuance, execution and return of the commission, the disposal of it when returned and the effect of the deposition as evidence, shall be governed by the provisions applicable if the action were in the supreme court and the deposition taken without the state for use within the state.

Supersedes former §§ 209–211, 213, 215. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 901–907, 911, 912.

§ 106. Suppression of deposition.

On proof by affidavit that a deposition has been improperly or irregularly taken or returned, or that the personal attendance of the witness at the trial could have been procured with due diligence by a subpoena or that either party or his attorney has practiced any fraud or unfair conduct to the prejudice of the adverse party in the course of the proceedings, the court may order the suppression of the deposition upon application of the party aggrieved, upon notice.

Former § 212 amended in form. § 212 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 910. Section is covered by Code of Civ. Pro., § 910, but is retained because it relates to the power of the court.

§ 107. Deposition to perpetuate testimony.

Upon proof by affidavit as prescribed in section one hundred and eight, either party to an action or special proceeding may apply to the court in the district where the action or proceeding is pending, for an order that the testimony of a witness be taken to be used conditionally as hereinafter provided; or, except when the person to be examined is confined in a prison or jail within the state, such an order may be granted on written stipulation of the parties.

Former §§ 216 and 218 combined, condensed and amended so as to apply to special proceedings. § 216 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1369. § 218 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 879.

§ 108. The same — affidavit on application.

The party desiring to take a deposition as prescribed in the last preceding section, must present to the court in the district where the action or special proceeding is pending, an affidavit showing:

1. The title and nature of the action or proceeding and the name and residence of the person to be examined; and that the testimony of such person is material and necessary for the prosecution or defense of the action or proceeding.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

2. That the person to be examined is about to depart from the city of New York, or that he is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable ground to believe that he will not be able to attend the trial, or that an other special circumstances exist which render it proper that he should be examined; but this subdivision does not apply where the person to be examined is a party to the action, except in case of his sickness or infirmity.

3. If the party sought to be examined is a corporation, the affidavit shall state the names of the officers or directors thereof whose testimony is necessary and material, or the books and papers as to the contents of which an examination or inspection is desired; and the order to be made in respect thereto shall direct the examination of such persons and the production of such books and papers.

Former § 217 amended in form. § 217 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 872.

§ 109. Order for examination.

The court to whom an affidavit is presented, as provided in section one hundred and eight, may, if the opposing party or his representative is not present, require that a reasonable notice of the application be given, or may act on the application at the time of such presentation, and must grant an order for the taking of the deposition, if satisfied of the truth of the matter stated in the affidavit, and may in its discretion designate and limit the particular matters on which the examination is to be conducted. The order may require that the examination be conducted before the court or at another place named in the order, in which event the order shall require the witness to be sworn before an officer authorized to take and administer oaths.

Former § 219 amended in form. § 219 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 873.

§ 110. Witnesses' fees; punishment for disobeying order.

Witnesses' fees, as provided in this act, for attendance upon a trial, must be paid or tendered when the order is served upon the party or person required to attend. If the party or person so served fails to obey the order his attendance may be compelled, and he may be punished in like manner, as if he failed to obey a subpoena issued from the court.

Former § 220 amended in form. § 220 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 874.

§ 111. Service of order and affidavit.

A copy of the order and of the affidavit upon which it was granted must be served at least two days before the time fixed for the examination, upon the attorney for each party to the action or special proceeding in like manner as a paper in the action; or if a party has not appeared they must be served upon him as directed by the order.

Former § 221 re-enacted with addition of "or special proceeding." § 221 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 875.

§ 112. Adjournment of examination.

The time for taking such examination may be adjourned in like manner as the trial of an action.

Former § 222 amended. § 222 new in former Municipal Court Act.

§ 113. Witness confined in prison.

Where the party or other person to be examined is confined in a prison or jail within the state, under sentence for a misdemeanor or felony, that fact must be stated in the affidavit, and his deposition may be taken as if he were not so confined, except that in such case the granting or refusing of the order is always in the discretion of the court. The order must require the production of the prisoner by the person in charge of the prison or jail, at the prison or jail, but it may prescribe such regulations and restrictions with respect thereto as the court deems proper.

Former § 223 re-enacted. § 223 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 877.

§ 114. Examination; manner of taking and returning deposition; refusal to answer.

The deposition shall be in the form of question and answer, and when completed must be carefully read to and subscribed by the person examined; and within three days thereafter, unless sooner required by the order, must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court in the district where the action or special proceeding is pending, together with the stipulation or the affidavit on which the order was granted, with proof of the service of the order and of the affidavit. If upon an examination, the person examined refuses to answer, that fact must be reported to the court, which must determine whether the question was relevant and the witness bound to answer.

Former § 224 re-enacted. § 224 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 880.

§ 115. When deposition may be read in evidence.

The deposition may be read in evidence by either party at the trial if it be satisfactorily proved that the witness is dead or is unable to attend by reason of his insanity, sickness or other infirmity, or that he is confined in a prison or jail, or that he has been and is absent from the city of New York, so that his attendance could not, with reasonable diligence, be compelled by subpoena.

Former § 225 re-enacted. § 225 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 881, 882.

§ 116. Effect of deposition.

The deposition so read in evidence has the same effect, and no other, as the oral testimony of the witness would have; and an objection to the competency or credibility of the witness, or to the relevancy or substantial competency of a question put to him, or of an answer given by him, may be made as if the witness were then examined, and need not be noted upon the deposition.

Former § 226 amended in form. § 226 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 883.

§ 117. Physical examination.

Where a party alleges, either for a cause of action, defense or counterclaim, damages for personal injuries, the court shall have power to order that he submit to a physical examination by one or more physicians or surgeons under such conditions as the court shall deem proper; and the court must make such an order whenever the adverse party shall present proof to the satisfaction of the court that he is ignorant of the nature and extent of the injuries alleged. If the party to be examined is a female, she shall be entitled to have the examination made by physicians or surgeons of her own sex. The order must direct the service of a copy thereof within the city of New York not less than five nor more than eight days before the date fixed for the examination, except that a different time for service may be directed when special reasons therefor are shown to exist and are recited in the order.

New. Adopted from Code of Civ. Pro., § 873, with changes providing for the examination of a defendant asserting a counterclaim.

TITLE VI.

Trial; jurors; submission of controversy.

- Sec. 118. Jury trial how obtained; jury fee.
119. Time for rendering judgment or decision.
120. Number of jurymen; fee for jury of twelve.
121. Jury term; trial jurors.
122. Special jury list; how such jurors summoned.
123. Trials by special jury.
124. Submission of controversy upon agreed facts.

§ 118. [Am'd, 1916.] Jury trial; how obtained; jury fee.

1. Either party at the time of pleading or within three days after joinder of issue may demand a trial by jury. The demand may be made in writing and filed with the clerk, or orally and endorsed upon the summons. In a special proceeding the demand may be made in open court on the return of the precept. The party demanding a trial by jury shall forthwith pay to the clerk the sum of three dollars, which shall be applied so far as necessary, to the payment of the lawful fees of the server for summoning the jurors, and of a fee of twenty-five cents to each juror, which payment shall be made to him by the clerk at the end of the trial.

2. Unless a demand is made and the jury fee paid as above provided, a jury trial is waived and the court must hear the evidence and decide all questions of fact and law; provided, however, that the court may in its discretion, at any time before or during the trial, direct that a trial be had by jury, and thereupon a trial by jury shall be had in the same manner as if either party had demanded it, and the jury fee shall be paid by the plaintiff.

3. If an action is settled or discontinued before trial, all jury and jurors' fees paid by any party as provided in this act shall be returned forthwith to such party by the clerk of the court to whom such jury fee was paid.

Subd. 3 added by L. 1910, ch. 123, in effect April 3, 1916.

Contains the substance of the first four sentences of former § 231; part of first sentence of former § 230, and the substance of the first sentence of former § 232, with changes. § 231 amended by L. 1908, ch. 431; L. 1910, ch. 541; originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 2990; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1372. § 230 amended by L. 1910, ch. 401; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1384. § 232 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1372. After submission of case no jury trial can be ordered. Jury fee reduced from four dollars and fifty cents to three dollars.

1. If a jury trial is not demanded or directed as provided in the last preceding section, the court must render judgment within fourteen days from the time when the case is submitted for that purpose, except when further time is given by the consent of the parties. If no decision is rendered within the time thus limited, the case shall be placed upon the calendar for causes reserved generally.

2. A motion must be decided within fourteen days after it is submitted for decision, except when further time is given by the consent of the parties; and if no decision is rendered within the time thus limited, the motion may be renewed.

Materially changes the provisions of former § 230 with respect to rendition of judgment or decision. § 230 amended by L. 1910, ch. 401; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1384. The court no longer loses jurisdiction if the case is not decided within the time limited.

§ 120. Number of jurymen; fee for jury of twelve.

1. Except as hereinafter provided, a jury shall be composed of six men.

2. In a special proceeding or in an action where the claim for damages or of the value of the chattels exceeds two hundred and fifty dollars, either party may demand a trial by a jury of twelve. In such a case the jury fee to be deposited shall be six dollars.

3. In a case provided for in the subdivision next preceding, if one of the parties has demanded a jury of six and has paid the fee required therefor, the other party may at any time before trial demand a jury of twelve, and upon making such demand must pay to the clerk a fee of three dollars, which shall be applied as provided in section one hundred and eighteen.

Partly new; partly composed of former § 234, amended. § 234 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1373. Case in which a jury of twelve may be had must now involve more than $250 instead of more than $100; jury fee in such case reduced to six dollars. Subdivision 3 conforms to Asbestolith Mfg. Co. v. Howland, 143 App. Div. 418.

§ 121. Jury terms; trial jurors.

Jury terms shall be held as the board of justices shall from time to time direct. Trial jurors for such terms shall have the same qualifications and shall be selected, drawn and notified by the same authorities and in the same manner as trial jurors of the supreme court held in the county in which such terms are held; and all provisions of the judiciary law and of the code of civil procedure, as they may be amended from time to time, except such as are inconsistent with this act, are hereby made to apply to this court and to trial jurors therein. At least twenty days before the opening of any term the number of trial jurors to be drawn for such term shall be fixed by the board of justices, and due notice thereof shall forthwith be transmitted to the official directed by law to draw such jurors. So far as the commissioner of jurors, or other official charged with the duty of drawing jurors in each county shall find it to be practicable, each juror drawn shall be summoned to the district nearest to his residence or place of business. Such jurors shall be paid the same compensation as trial jurors in the supreme court held in the county in which they serve. All returns required by law to be made after adjournment of the term shall be made by the clerk of the district in which such term is held, except as provided in section one hundred and twenty-three of this act. In all proceedings for the remission and enforcement of fines of jurors the justices of this court shall have the same power and authority as justices of the supreme court and judges of the county courts in the respective counties. The board of justices may, upon request of the commissioner of jurors or other official charged with the duty of summoning jurors, depute one or more officers of this court to assist in summoning such jurors.

New. Supersedes provisions contained in former §§ 231, 231-a, 231-b, 233, 235, 236, 237, and provides a uniform system based on that prevailing in the Supreme Court in the counties embraced within the city of New York; jurors in New York county, see Judiciary Law, art. xvii; jurors in Kings county, art. xviii; and in other counties, art. xvi.

§ 122. Special jury list; how such jurors summoned.

If requested to do so by the board of justices, the commissioner of jurors or other person charged with the duty of summoning jurors in each county within the city of New York, must, on or before the first Monday in September in each year, furnish to the clerk of one or more districts of said court within the county for which said commissioner or other officer acts, a list of not more than one hundred names of qualified trial jurors residing in such county. The clerk of the court who shall receive the jury list must write on a slip of paper the name, residence, place of business and occupation of each of the persons named on said list and place the same in a box to be called the "undrawn special jury box." Whenever there is an action or special proceeding to be tried with a jury at a time other than a regular jury term, the clerk in such district must upon the order of a justice as provided in the next succeeding section, and in the presence of a justice, draw the required number of said slips of paper from the undrawn special jury box and deliver the names to a marshal or to one or more of the officers of the court, with a written or printed notice directed to each juror, requiring him to attend at the time and at the court specified in the notice. The officer, upon receipt of the said notices, must immediately summon each juror by delivering the notice to him personally or by leaving it at his residence with some person of suitable age and discretion, and must thereupon make a return to the clerk of the court as to the manner in which such service was made by him. After such panel of jurors so summoned has been discharged by the court the clerk must make like return as in the case of jurors summoned pursuant to the next preceding section, and such jurors shall be entitled to the same compensation and paid in the same manner as jurors summoned for a regular term. The slips containing the names of the jurors so summoned must be placed in a box to be called the "drawn jury box" until all the names have been drawn from the undrawn jury box, and as often as that happens the whole number must be returned to the undrawn jury box.

Sections 122 and 123 provide for a special jury list to be summoned for jury trials during the months of July and August, or at other times when there is no regular jury.

§ 123. Trials by special jury.

If in any action or special proceeding trial by jury is demanded at a time when no jury is in session and it appears to the justice presiding that the rights of a party may be prejudiced by delaying the trial until the next jury term, such justice shall order the clerk who has received the jury list provided in the last preceding section to summon, in the manner therein prescribed, such number of jurors as such justice may direct, to appear at the court where the action or proceeding is pending. When the jury is summoned to a court other than the one the clerk of which has the custody of the said jury list, the clerk of the court where the action or proceeding is pending, shall, upon the discharge of the jurors, forward to the clerk having the custody of the said jury list, such detailed information, certified by him, as will enable the said clerk to make a proper return as required by law.

§ 124. Submission of controversy upon agreed facts.

1. At any time after joinder of issue in an action or special proceeding, and before the case is called for trial, the parties, if of full age, may agree upon a written statement of the facts for submission to the court. The statement must be accompanied by a written submission and by the affidavit of one or more of the parties that the controversy is real and that the submission is made in good faith for the purpose of determining the rights of the parties.

2. The controversy is submitted by filing the statement, submission and affidavit in the office of the clerk in the district where the action or proceeding is pending; and subsequent proceedings are subject to all the provisions of this act, except that an order of arrest, a warrant of attachment, a warrant of seizure, a requisition to replevy or an execution against the person cannot be granted therein.

3. The action or proceeding must be tried by the court upon the statement alone; and the statement, submission, affidavit and the judgment rendered or final order made, and any orders or papers necessarily affecting such judgment or order, shall constitute the record. If the statement of facts is not sufficient to enable the court to decide the controversy, the court may permit the filing, within a fixed time, of an additional or supplemental statement, in default whereof the court must dismiss the submission without costs to either party.

Former §§ 241-243 amended and combined. §§ 241-243 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1279-1281.

Note to Title VI.—The provisions of this title have been almost entirely rewritten and the changes therein are substantial. Former §§ 239, 240 are omitted as unnecessary as they are covered by new § 18.

TITLE VII.

Judgment and execution.

- Art. 1. Judgments.
2. Execution.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Judgments.

- Sec. 125. Judgments.
126. Dismissal for neglect to prosecute.
127. Judgment for or against any of the parties; severance of action.
128. Judgment when defendant liable to arrest.
129. Vacating and amending judgments and orders; opening defaults and granting new trials.

§ 125. Judgments.

Within the limits of jurisdiction defined in this act, the court shall have power to render any judgment that is consistent with the case made by the pleadings and embraced within the issues. A judgment dismissing the action may be rendered either on the merits or without prejudice to a new action, as the case requires, and the court shall make a proper note thereof. A decision as prescribed in an action tried without a jury in the supreme court shall not be required. All proceedings on the part of the party against whom judgment has been rendered, or who is required to pay the costs of any motion, except to review or vacate such judgment or order requiring payment of costs, are stayed without further direction of the court until the payment thereof.

New. Supersedes former §§ 248, 249. The first sentence is based on Code Civ. Pro., § 1207. As to judgments of dismissal, whether on the merits or not, see Clark v. Scoville, 198 N. Y. 279.

Findings of fact and conclusions of law not required.

Former §§ 250, 252 omitted as unnecessary.

§ 126. [Am'd, 1917.] Dismissal for neglect to prosecute.

When an action has remained for more than six months upon the general calendar or the calendar for actions reserved generally, it may be dismissed by the court upon application of the defendant on notice; or, if the action has remained upon said calendar for more than one year, it may be dismissed by the court of its own motion.

New. Amended by L. 1917, ch. 611, in effect May 22, 1917.

§ 127. Judgment for or against any of the parties; severance of action.

The court shall have power to render judgment for or against one or more plaintiffs and for or against one or more defendants, to determine the ultimate rights of all the parties and to render judgment accordingly; but unless the court otherwise directs, a controversy between defendants shall not delay a judgment to which the plaintiff is entitled. When there are two or more defendants and a several judgment is proper, the court shall have power to render judgment, or to require that the plaintiff take judgment against one or more of them, and to direct that the action be severed and proceed against the others as sole defendants.

New. Taken partly from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1204, 1205, which apparently form the source of part of § 20 of the New Jersey Practice Act. Last part of first sentence is taken from last sentence of Code of Civ. Pro., § 521. Section complies with the recommendations of the American Bar Association. (See report of Board of Stat. Consol. 1912, p. 184.)

§ 128. Judgment when defendant liable to arrest.

When a judgment is rendered in a case where the defendant is subject to arrest and imprisonment thereon, it must be so stated, in the judgment and entered in the docket. The clerk must in any transcript issued by him insert the words "defendant liable to execution against his person," and a like note must also be made in the docket of a judgment by a county clerk where such a transcript is filed with him.

Former § 251 amended in form. § 251 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1386.

§ 129. Vacating and amending judgments and orders; opening defaults and granting new trials.

1. Upon proof by affidavit or otherwise that a judgment has been taken or a final order made without service of summons or process, the judgment or final order must be vacated and set aside by the court in the district where it was entered.

2. A motion to open a default and to vacate and set aside a judgment entered thereon must be made with due diligence and upon good cause shown and in no event more than one year after entry of the judgment; except that where the summons was served as prescribed in section twenty-three of this act, such motion must be made in no event more than two years after entry of the judgment. Upon granting such a motion the court must set the case down for trial. If a judgment taken by default or any part thereof has been collected or otherwise enforced and the defendant is successful upon the trial, such restitution may be compelled as the court directs; but title to property sold to a purchaser in good faith under execution issued upon the judgment shall not be affected.

3. A motion to set aside the verdict of a jury and to vacate, amend or modify a judgment rendered upon a trial by the court with or without a jury, and for a new trial, must be made at the close of the trial or within twenty days after the entry of the judgment.

4. A motion for a new trial upon the ground of fraud or newly discovered evidence must be made with due diligence and in no event later than one year after the entry of the judgment; and unless the court otherwise directs, it may be made upon affidavits without making and settling a case.

5. A new trial may be limited to the questions with respect to which the verdict or judgment is found to be wrong, if such questions are separable. If a verdict or judgment is set aside solely because the damages are excessive or inadequate, it may stand in all other respects and the new trial may be limited to the question of damages.

6. Upon opening a default, amending, modifying or vacating a judgment or order, or setting aside the verdict of a jury and granting a new trial, the court may impose such terms and conditions as may be just.

New. Supersedes former §§ 35, 253-256.

Subdivision 5 is based on the New Jersey Practice Rules 72 and 73.

Former § 257 is omitted from this title and its provisions are included in new § 154.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Execution.

Sec. 130. When and how issued.

- 131. Issuance and filing of transcript and effect thereof.
- 132. Proceedings against joint debtors.
- 133. Docketing judgment in another county.
- 134. Execution against marshals.
- 135. Execution; requisites.
- 136. Execution against the person.
- 137. The same — as affected by joinder of causes of action.
- 138. Renewal of execution.
- 139. Judgment and execution in favor of wage earners.
- 140. Time limit of execution.
- 141. Liability of marshal to execution creditor.
- 142. Return of execution and satisfaction of judgment.

§ 130. When and how issued.

An execution may be issued upon a judgment either by the clerk of the court in the district where the judgment was entered, within six years thereafter, the execution being directed to a marshal, or by the judgment creditor or his attorney after filing a transcript of the judgment with a county clerk as provided in section one hundred and thirty-one, the execution being directed to a sheriff. But no execution shall issue out of this court after a transcript has been issued, and no transcript shall be issued while an execution of this court remains outstanding, except a transcript showing that the judgment has been modified, vacated or set aside. When the execution is issued to a marshal the prospective fees of the county clerk and sheriff must be omitted. An execution issued to the sheriff upon a judgment in an action to establish a mechanic's lien shall authorize and direct the sheriff to sell the right, title and interest of the owner of the premises upon which the lien set forth in the complaint existed when the notice of lien was filed.

Former § 260 amended. § 260 amended by L. 1903, ch. 144; L. 1908, ch. 495; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1392. Allows the judgment creditor or his attorney to issue execution to the sheriff.

§ 131. Issuance and filing of transcript and effect thereof.

1. Upon application of a judgment creditor the clerk must deliver to him a transcript of the judgment, except as provided in the last preceding section. If the judgment is for the plaintiff in an action to establish a mechanic's lien, the clerk shall insert in the transcript an additional statement that the action was brought to establish a mechanic's lien and that the lien has been duly established and adjudged against the interest of the defendant in the property described in the complaint when the notice of lien was filed.

2. Upon presentation of the transcript and payment of the fees therefor, the clerk of the county in which the judgment was rendered must endorse upon the transcript the date of its receipt, must file it in his office and must docket the judgment as of the time of the receipt of the transcript, in a book kept by him for that purpose as prescribed by law; and if the judgment is for the recovery of a chattel which has been delivered to the unsuccessful party or for the value thereof, or for the establishment of a mechanic's lien, he must enter in the docket the particulars of the judgment as stated in the transcript.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

3. Upon the docketing of a judgment as prescribed in this section it shall be deemed a judgment of the supreme court and may be enforced accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent this court or a justice thereof from vacating, setting aside or modifying the judgment or staying the execution thereof.

Former § 261 amended in form. § 261 amended by L. 1908, ch. 495; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1392. Stay of execution in subd. 3 is new. Former §§ 262, 263 omitted as unnecessary, this court being made a court of record by new § 1.

§ 132. Proceedings against joint debtors.

An action, judgment and execution against one or more of several defendants alleged to be jointly indebted upon contract, shall be governed by the provisions applicable to like cases in the supreme court, including those whereby a plaintiff who has recovered judgment against one or more of such defendants may maintain an action and recover judgment against the others to charge their property with the sum remaining unpaid on the original judgment. When an execution upon a judgment against one or more of such defendants is issued out of this court, the clerk of the court shall make the same endorsements upon the execution and the same entries in the docket that a county clerk is required to make when execution is issued on a like judgment of the supreme court.

Supersedes former §§ 264-268. See Code Civ. Pro., § 1032 et seq.

§ 133. Docketing judgment in another county.

The county clerk with whom a transcript is filed, must furnish to any person applying therefor and paying the fees, one or more transcripts of the docket of the judgment, attested by his signature. A county clerk to whom such transcript is presented must, upon payment of the fees therefor, immediately file it and docket the judgment in the appropriate docket book kept in his office in like manner as the judgment was docketed by the first county clerk. The judgment when so docketed has the like effect as it has in the county in which it was docketed upon the transcript from this court.

Former § 269 amended in form. § 269 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1397.

§ 134. Execution against marshals.

Execution on a judgment against a marshal or his sureties shall issue only to the sheriff after transcript filed with a county clerk as provided in this article, and must be made returnable to the county clerk.

Former § 270 amended. § 270 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1398.

§ 135. Execution; requisites.

The execution, when issued out of this court, must be directed to a marshal and subscribed by the clerk of the court in the district in which the judgment was rendered, and must bear date of the day of its delivery. It must state the names of the parties, the district where and the time when rendered, the amount of the judgment and the amount due thereon. It must require of the marshal substantially as follows:

1. If it is a case where the defendant cannot be arrested, it must direct the officer to collect the amount due on the judgment out of the personal property of the debtor and to pay the same to the clerk or to the party entitled thereto.

2. If it is a case where the defendant may be arrested, in addition to the foregoing it may direct the officer, if sufficient property of the defendant liable to execution cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, that he arrest the defendant and commit him to the jail of the county wherein the district in which the judgment was entered is situate, until he pay the judgment or be discharged according to law.

3. When a defendant was served with summons otherwise than personally and did not appear generally, but his property has been duly attached under a warrant of attachment that has not been vacated, an execution on the judgment against him must require the marshal to collect the judgment only out of the property so attached.

4. In all cases it must further direct the officer to make proper return of the execution to the clerk of the court from which the execution issued, within twenty days from the time of the receipt thereof.

Former § 271 amended. Subdivision 3 is taken from former § 91. § 271 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1399. § 91 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1329.

§ 136. Execution against the person.

If the execution directs the arrest of the defendant for want of sufficient personal property, and if there is not sufficient personal property subject to levy found by the officer, or if upon demand by the officer the defendant fails to produce sufficient property, the officer must immediately arrest the defendant. When arrested, the defendant must be conveyed to the common jail of the county wherein the district where the judgment is entered is situate, and there kept in custody until the execution, with costs, is paid, or he is discharged by due course of law.

This is the last sentence of former § 146, amended. § 146 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 484, 2937.

§ 137. The same — as affected by joinder of causes of action.

When a cause of action for which a defendant may be arrested was united with a cause of action for which a defendant may not be arrested, an execution against the person of the defendant cannot be issued upon the judgment unless it appears that the judgment was rendered solely upon the cause of action for which he might have been arrested.

Former § 272 amended in form. § 272 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1401.

§ 138. Renewal of execution.

At the request of the judgment creditor an execution may be renewed before the expiration of the twenty days by the word "renewal" being written thereon with the date, and subscribed by the clerk of the court. Such renewal has the same effect as an original issue, and may be repeated as often as necessary. If an execution is returned unsatisfied, others may be issued on like request from time to time until the judgment is satisfied.

Former § 273 amended in form. § 273 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1402.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

§ 139. Judgment and execution in favor of wage earners.

In an action by a journeyman, laborer, or other employee whose employment answers to the general description of wage earner, for services rendered or wages earned, if the plaintiff recovers a judgment for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, and the action was brought within three months after the cause of action accrued, no property of the defendant is exempt from levy and sale on execution; and if the execution is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, the clerk must, upon the application of the plaintiff, issue an execution against the person of the defendant for the sum remaining uncollected. A defendant arrested in such a case must be actually confined in the jail and is not entitled to the liberties thereof, but must be discharged after having been so confined for fifteen days. After his discharge another execution against his person shall not issue upon the judgment, but the judgment creditor may enforce the judgment against his property. This section shall apply whether the defendant be male or female.

Former § 274 amended. § 274 amended by L. 1907, ch. 425; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1405. Limit of amount of judgment increased to $100, and of time to three months, and section made applicable to female employer.

§ 140. Time limit of execution.

A defendant cannot be arrested nor can his property be sold on execution after twenty days from its issue or renewal, but property levied on within twenty days may be sold after renewal.

Former § 275. Originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1406.

§ 141. Liability of marshal to execution creditor.

A marshal is liable to an execution creditor for the amount of the execution in the following cases:

1. Where he suffers the twenty days to elapse without making a true return of the execution and filing the same with the clerk of the court, and paying to him or to the party entitled thereto the money collected thereon.

2. Where he wilfully or negligently omits to levy on property of the defendant, or, if the defendant is liable to arrest, to arrest and imprison him within the twenty days, or, having arrested the defendant, fails to commit him to the county jail within the twenty days.

Former § 276 amended in form. § 276 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1407.

§ 142. [Am'd, 1916, 1918.] Return of execution and satisfaction of judgment.

1. Judgments of this court may be satisfied and discharged and the record thereof cancelled in the same manner as judgments of the supreme court, except as otherwise provided in this section.

2. If no execution has been issued to a marshal and no transcript of the judgment has been filed in the office of a county clerk, the judgment may be satisfied by depositing with the clerk of the court in the district where the judgment is entered the full amount due on the judgment, with interest to the date of deposit; whereupon the clerk must mark the record of the judgment satisfied, and in actions for wages not exceeding fifty dollars, may pay the amount deposited in satisfaction of a judgment, to the judgment creditor or his attorney, upon demand.

Subd. 2 am'd by L. 1916, ch. 508; L. 1918, ch. 503, in effect Sept. 1, 1918.

3. When a transcript of a judgment has been filed in the office of a county clerk and no execution has been issued to a sheriff, the judgment may be satisfied by depositing with the said county clerk the full amount due on the judgment, with interest to the date of deposit, accompanied by a certificate of the sheriff of the same county, dated on the day of deposit, that no execution upon the judgment is in his hands; whereupon the said county clerk shall cancel and discharge the docket of the judgment.

Subd. 3 am'd by L. 1916, ch. 508, in effect May 11, 1916.

4. When a judgment docketed in the office of a county clerk has been satisfied or discharged, the county clerk must issue, on payment of his fees, a certificate of the fact, and upon filing said certificate in the office of the clerk of any other county where the judgment has been docketed, the clerk of such county must enter satisfaction of the judgment accordingly.

Former § 277 amended. Section 277 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1408. Provisions as to deposit new. For provisions as to satisfaction of judgment of the Supreme Court, see Code of Civ. Proc., §§ 1260-1272.

TITLE VIII.

Clerks and Marshals.

- Article 1. Clerks.
2. Marshals.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Clerks.

- Sec. 143. Duties of the clerk.
144. Destruction of records and papers.

§ 143. Duties of the clerk.

The clerk in each district shall:

1. Exercise the powers imposed and perform the duties conferred upon him by this act and the rules and the resolutions of the board of justices, and those usually appertaining to his office; and in the exercise of such powers and the performance of such duties, conform to the directions of the court.

2. Keep the seal of the court and affix it to such papers and documents as he may be required to certify.

3. Keep a docket book in such manner as the rules may prescribe, and all other records and proceedings of the court, and act as custodian of all documents, books and records.

4. Keep the office open for the transaction of business during the hours designated by the rules and resolutions of the board of justices.

5. Attend the sittings of the court, administer oaths, receive verdicts of juries, and, in a proper case, adjourn causes, or, when no justice appears, adjourn causes to the next judicial day.

6. Assume charge and control of, and be responsible for, the general conduct of the business of his office and for the faithful discharge of the duties of the deputy and assistant clerks and other officers connected with the court.

7. Collect and receive all the fees, and account for and pay the same into the city treasury monthly, under oath, on the first day of each and every month or within three days thereafter, which account shall contain the title of each case and the amount of fees received therein; and the salary of such clerk shall not be paid until he shall have so accounted and paid. He shall perform no service until he shall have received the legal fees therefor.

8. Deliver to his successor in office the official seal and all papers, books and records on file in his office.

This section includes former §§ 282-287. § 282 amended by L. 1904, ch. 682; originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1428. § 283 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1429. §§ 284-287 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1409-1412.

§ 144. Destruction of records and papers.

The board of justices may by resolution direct the clerk of a court to destroy any records or papers deposited or filed in his office which may be considered as no longer necessary.

New. Adapted from Code Civ. Pro., § 339-a.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Marshals.

Sec. 145. Marshals to continue in office; appointment of their successors; vacancies.

146. Bond of marshal.

147. Action on marshal's bond.

148. Filing of transcript of judgment with city clerk; reducing bond.

149. Reducing bond on payment.

150. Mayor to compel renewal of marshal's bond; removal of marshal.

151. General powers, duties and liabilities of marshals.

152. Removal and suspension on charges.

153. Payment of money received by marshals.

§ 145. Marshals to continue in office; appointment of their successors; vacancies.

The marshals of the city of New York in office when this act shall take effect shall continue to hold office until the end of their respective terms. The successors of said marshals shall be appointed by the mayor of said city for terms of six years. No person shall be appointed a marshal in a borough of which he is not a resident. The removal of a marshal from the borough in and for which he was appointed shall vacate his office. If a vacancy in the office of marshal shall occur otherwise than by the expiration of a term, the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of the marshal whom he succeeds.

Supersedes §§ 1425 and 1427 of the Greater New York Charter.

§ 146. Bond of marshal.

1. No marshal shall be permitted to enter upon the duties of his office until he shall have given a bond as herein prescribed. The bond shall be executed by the marshal with two sufficient sureties, who shall be residents of the city of New York and each of whom shall be the owner of real estate therein of the value of double the penalty of the bond, which shall be the sum of three thousand dollars. The bond shall provide that the marshal and the sureties shall jointly and severally answer to the city of New York and any persons that may complain, for the true and faithful execution by such marshal of the duties of his office. The bond shall be submitted for approval to a justice of the court in the district in which the marshal was appointed; and such justice shall have power to require that the sureties justify before him within five days after the bond shall have been submitted, and shall approve or reject the bond within five days thereafter. When so approved, the bond shall be filed with the city clerk of the city of New York.

2. The bond must be executed, approved and filed within thirty days after the appointment of the marshal or he shall be deemed to have declined his appointment and another person shall be appointed in his place.

Former § 294 and former § 301 amended. §§ 294, 301 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410. §§ 1700, 1708. Amount of bond increased from $2,000 to $3,000, and approval by a justice required, instead of approval by city clerk.

Former § 293 is omitted.

§ 147. Action on marshal's bond.

An action upon the bond of a marshal may be brought and prosecuted to judgment in this court, upon leave obtained from a justice of this court, according to the provisions relating to an action in the supreme court by a private person upon an official bond.

Supersedes former §§ 295, 296. See Code of Civ. Pro., § 1880 et seq.

There is no reason why a party must first recover judgment against the marshal and have execution returned and then obtain leave to sue on the bond, as required by former §§ 295, 296.

Former § 297 omitted because covered by new § 134.

§ 148. Filing of transcript of judgment with city clerk; reducing bond.

Upon the filing with the city clerk of a transcript of a judgment on the bond of a marshal, the city clerk shall make a memorandum on the bond of the time when and the court whereby such judgment was rendered and the amount thereof, and he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents therefor, which the court rendering the judgment shall have power to include therein; and the bond shall be reduced by the amount of the judgment.

Former § 298 amended. § 298 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1704.

§ 149. Reducing bond on payment.

Whenever the sureties of the marshal shall pay the amount for which the action on the marshal's bond is brought, and the costs and disbursements incurred therein, or any part thereof, they shall be entitled to have such sum credited upon the bond upon presenting to the city clerk the affidavit of the plaintiff or his attorney in such action, acknowledging the payment; whereupon such clerk shall endorse the payment on the bond and the bond shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Former § 299 amended. § 299 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1705.

§ 150. Mayor to compel renewal of marshal's bond; removal of marshal.

Whenever judgment shall be rendered on the bond of a marshal, or the bond shall be reduced as provided in the last preceding section, the city clerk shall report the fact to the mayor. If the amount of the judgment is equal to or greater than the amount of the bond the mayor shall direct the marshal to furnish a new bond; or, if the amount of the judgment is less than the amount of the bond, or in case of a reduction thereof, the mayor shall direct the marshal to furnish an additional bond in the penal sum of double the amount of the judgment or the reduction. If the marshal fails to comply with such direction within ten days after notice thereof, he shall be removed from office.

Former § 300 amended. § 300 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1707. Provision as to suspension of marshal omitted.

§ 151. General powers, duties and liabilities of marshals.

The authority of a marshal extends throughout the city of New York. Except as otherwise prescribed in this act or in the rules, every execution, order of arrest, warrant of attachment, requisition to replevy, warrant of seizure, or other mandate of the court shall be served and executed by a marshal, and all provisions of law relating to the powers, duties and liabilities of sheriffs in like cases and in respect to the taking and restitution of property, shall apply to marshals. Every marshal shall keep a record of his official acts in such manner as shall be prescribed by the board of justices.

Former §§ 302-305 amended and combined. §§ 302, 304 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1709, 1711; §§ 303, 305 new in former Municipal Court Act. Service of summons (§ 22) or of a subpoena (§ 98) need not be made by a marshal.

§ 152. Removal and suspension on charges.

The mayor may remove any marshal for cause, provided that written charges are first filed with the mayor, and that the marshal be given due notice thereof and be afforded an opportunity to be heard; and the mayor may, in his discretion, suspend said marshal from the performance of his official duties pending a hearing upon the charges. Upon charges being preferred against a marshal by a justice of the municipal court, the mayor shall forthwith cause notice of suspension of the marshal to be served upon him, and the marshal shall thereupon remain suspended until the hearing and determination of the charges. The mayor may, in his discretion, delegate to the secretary to the mayor the power and duty of hearing the evidence to be produced upon the said hearing, and in such case the said secretary shall have the power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths and take the evidence and shall submit the same to the mayor who shall forthwith make a determination thereon, which shall have the same force and effect as if the evidence had been taken before the mayor in person.

Former § 306 amended in form. § 306 amended by L. 1904, ch. 264; originally revised from 1901, ch. 466, § 1429.

§ 153. Payment of money received by marshals.

Within five days after a marshal shall have collected or received any money upon any process of the court, he shall pay the same, less his lawful fees and disbursements, to the person entitled thereto, or to his attorney, or to the clerk of the court in the district from which such process was issued. Upon his failure to do so he may be proceeded against as for a contempt. The clerk of the court with whom such money is deposited shall pay the same on demand to the person entitled thereto or to his attorney.

Former § 307 amended in form. § 307 amended by L. 1905, ch. 223; L. 1910, ch. 540; new in former Municipal Court Act.

Appeals.

- Sec. 154. Judgments and orders appealable.
155. Review of intermediate orders.
156. Time to appeal.
157. Notice of appeal.
158. Supplying omissions; amendments.
159. Stay of execution pending appeal.
160. Exception to and justification of sureties.
161. Settlement of case and return on appeal.
162. Death of party.
163. Remittitur and return of papers.

§ 154. Judgments and orders appealable.

A party aggrieved may appeal to the supreme court, except when the judgment or order or final order was rendered or made upon his default from

1. A judgment in an action;
2. A final order in a special proceeding;
3. An order granting or denying a new trial;
4. An order granting or denying a motion to open a default and to vacate a judgment entered thereon;
5. An order granting or denying a motion to vacate a judgment or a final order upon the ground that the judgment was rendered or the final order made without service of summons or process;
6. An order granting or denying a motion to discharge a defendant from arrest, or an order granting or denying a motion to vacate or modify a warrant of attachment or a requisition to replevy or a warrant of seizure;
7. An order sustaining or overruling an objection taken to a pleading as prescribed in sections eighty-eight and eighty-nine of this act, provided that leave to appeal be granted either by the justice who made the order or by a justice of the appellate court;
8. An order which the court had not the power to make.

Partly new, partly taken from former §§ 257, 310 and from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1294, 1347. § 257 amended by L. 1910, ch. 538; new in former Municipal Court Act. § 310 amended by L. 1907, ch. 664; L. 1910, ch. 538; L. 1913, ch. 386; originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1377. Provisions in former § 310 relating to the appellate term, its clerk and attendants, omitted and embraced in proposed amendments to the Code of Civil Procedure and the Judiciary Law (see Appendix); parts relating to judgment on appeal omitted because covered by Code of Civ. Pro., § 1317; parts transferred to §§ 155, 156.

§ 155. Review of intermediate orders.

An appeal taken from a judgment or final order brings up for review an intermediate order which is specified in the notice of appeal and necessarily affects the judgment or final order and has not already been reviewed upon a separate appeal.

An order made after judgment or final order is deemed to have been made in the action or special proceeding within the meaning of this section.

Part of former § 310 with addition based on Code of Civ. Pro., § 1347. § 310 amended by L. 1907, ch. 664; L. 1910, ch. 538; L. 1913, ch. 386; originally revised from L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1377.

§ 156. Time to appeal.

An appeal must be taken within twenty days after the entry of the judgment or order or final order. The right to review an intermediate order is not affected by the expiration of the time within which a separate appeal therefrom might have been taken.

Part of former § 311 amended in form. § 311 amended by L. 1904, ch. 598; L. 1908, ch. 22; originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 3046. The part of former § 311 relating to appeals from judgments rendered without service of process has been omitted.

§ 157. Notice of appeal.

An appeal is taken by filing with the clerk of the court in the district where the judgment, order or final order is entered, a written notice of appeal, subscribed by the appellant or by his attorney, and the clerk shall give notice thereof to the respondent or his attorney in the manner prescribed by the rules.

Part of former § 311 amended. § 311 amended by L. 1904, ch. 598; L. 1908, ch. 22; originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 3046. Practice changed. Deposit of costs abolished. Section supersedes former § 312 relating to service of notice of appeal.

§ 158. Supplying omissions; amendments.

Defects or omissions in the proceedings necessary to perfect an appeal or to stay execution of the judgment, final order or order appealed from may be supplied, or amendment of such proceedings may be granted, by the appellate court in like manner as though the appeal were taken from a judgment, final order or order of the supreme court.

Supersedes former § 313 and adopts Code of Civ. Pro., § 1303.

§ 159. Stay of execution pending appeal.

1. The appellant may stay execution by filing with the clerk and serving, as hereinafter provided, a written undertaking executed by one or more sureties approved by a justice of the court, to the effect that if the appeal is dismissed, or if judgment is rendered against the appellant in the appellate court and an execution issued thereon is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, the sureties will pay the amount of the judgment or the portion thereof remaining unsatisfied, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least one hundred dollars, and not less than twice the amount of the judgment; or, if the judgment is for the recovery of a chattel, that the sureties will pay the value of the chattel together with costs and the damages, if any, awarded by the judgment. If execution has been issued, the service upon the sheriff or marshal of a copy of the undertaking, certified by the clerk or accompanied by an affidavit showing that it is a copy thereof and that the original has been duly filed, stays further proceedings under the execution, subject to the provisions of the section next following.

2. In lieu of an undertaking, the appellant may stay execution by depositing with the clerk a sum of money equal to the amount of the judgment, with interest thereon for one year, and fifty dollars in addition.

Former § 314 amended; last sentence of former § 316 added and first sentence thereof omitted as unnecessary. §§ 314, 316 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 3050, 3051. Subdivision 2 is new. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1306, 1311.

§ 160. Exception to and justification of sureties.

The respondent or his attorney may, within five days after notice by the clerk of the filing of the undertaking, serve upon the appellant or his attorney a written notice that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. Within five days thereafter, the sureties, or other sureties in a new undertaking to the same effect, must justify on at least three days' notice, before the court in the district in which the judgment was rendered. The court must endorse upon the undertaking or a copy thereof its allowance or rejection of the sureties. If the sureties fail or refuse to justify after service of the notice of exception, the respondent may proceed as if no undertaking had been executed.

Former § 315 amended so as to avoid the rule that when the sureties fail to justify they are relieved from liability unless the exception be withdrawn. § 315 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., § 1335. Manning v. Gould, 90 N. Y. 476; Zwecker v. Levine, 135 App. Div. 432.

§ 161. Settlement of case and return on appeal.

1. When an appeal has been taken as herein prescribed, the stenographer's original transcript of minutes must be furnished to the clerk within ten days after the fees therefor have been paid. Immediately upon receiving such minutes the clerk shall cause notice of that fact to be sent to the attorney for the appellant, or to the appellant if he has not appeared by attorney. The appellant or his attorney shall then procure the case to be settled on a written notice of at least three days to the clerk and to the attorney for the respondent or to the respondent if he has not appeared by attorney, returnable before the justice who tried the case. The clerk must thereupon make a return to the appellate court, which must contain the summons or precept, pleadings, evidence and judgment or final order and all other necessary papers and proceedings, and have annexed thereto the opinion of the court, if any, and the notice of appeal. The justice before whom the case was tried shall within five days from the date of the submission to him of the case on appeal, settle the case and endorse his settlement on the return. The clerk must thereupon cause the return to be filed with the clerk of the appellate court. After a justice is out of office he may settle the case in any action or proceeding tried before him and may be compelled by the appellate court so to do.

2. Where no testimony was taken and a settlement of a case is not required, the return shall be made by the clerk forthwith upon filing the notice of appeal. Such return shall contain the judgment, order or final order appealed from and all the original papers upon which the judgment, order or final order was rendered or made, duly authenticated by the certificate of the clerk having the custody thereof, or copies thereof duly certified by such clerk, and shall have annexed thereto the opinion of the court, if any, and the notice of appeal.

3. Upon an appeal from an order granting or denying a motion for a new trial, upon the ground of fraud or newly discovered evidence, the stenographer's minutes of the trial shall be included in the return of the clerk and the provisions of subdivision one of this section shall apply to such an appeal.

Supersedes former §§ 317-319. Justice required to settle the case only. Subdivision 2 is intended to adopt and extend the practice established by Guttenbergh v. Genovese, 121 N. Y. Supp. 612.

§ 162. Death of party.

When a party dies before an appeal has been taken, or when a party to an appeal dies before the appeal is heard, the proceedings after his death shall be governed by the provisions applicable to similar cases in the supreme court, and an order substituting the proper representative of the decedent as a party may be made on application by the survivor or by such representative, on notice.

Supersedes former §§ 320-322. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 1297-1299.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

§ 163. Remittitur and return of papers.

The judgment or order of the appellate court must be remitted for enforcement to the court below; and the clerk of the appellate court shall return to the clerk of the court in the district from which the appeal was taken, all the papers upon which the appeal was heard.

Former § 327 amended in form. § 327 new in former Municipal Court Act. See Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 194, 3194.

NOTE TO TITLE IX.—The following former sections of the act have been omitted: § 323 because it relates to the power of the Supreme Court and is substantially covered by Code of Civ. Pro., § 1823; §§ 324, 325, because they relate to the powers and duties of the Supreme Court; § 326, because covered by Code Civ. Pro., § 1817.

TITLE X.

Costs and Fees.

Sec. 164. Sums allowed.

- 165. No costs on plea of bankruptcy.
- 166. When defendant entitled to increased costs.
- 167. Costs allowed by court.
- 168. Costs in action by working woman.
- 169. Taxation of costs and disbursements.
- 170. Disbursements allowable.
- 171. Review of taxation.
- 172. Costs upon appeal; amount.
- 173. Fees payable to the clerk.
- 174. Employee's action; no fees.
- 175. No fees or costs in state and city actions.
- 176. Witnesses' fees.
- 177. Stenographer's fees.
- 178. Marshals' fees.

§ 164. Sums allowed.

In all actions there shall be allowed to the prevailing party, if he shall have shown that he has appeared by attorney, the following sums as costs:

1. To the plaintiff. Where, upon issue joined and after trial, the plaintiff recovers judgment: For fifty dollars and under one hundred dollars, ten dollars; for one hundred dollars and under two hundred dollars, fifteen dollars; for every additional one hundred dollars or fractional part thereof, five dollars.

2. To the plaintiff. If the defendant interposes a counterclaim in excess of plaintiff's claim and the plaintiff recovers judgment, costs shall be allowed on the amount of the counterclaim at the same rate as if it were the amount of the plaintiff's recovery. If the counterclaim is less than the plaintiff's claim, costs shall be governed by plaintiff's recovery.

3. To the plaintiff. Where the plaintiff recovers judgment upon the defendant's failure to answer, costs shall be allowed at one-half of the rates prescribed in subdivision one of this section.

4. To the plaintiff. For each necessary defendant served with the summons by a person other than a marshal, one dollar.

5. To the plaintiff. Upon settlement after service of summons and before trial, plaintiff shall be entitled to costs at the rates prescribed in subdivision three of this section, determined by the amount of the settlement.

6. To the plaintiff. Upon settlement during or after trial and before entry of judgment, plaintiff shall be entitled to costs at the rates prescribed in subdivision one of this section, determined by the amount of the settlement.

7. To the defendant. Where the defendant recovers judgment after trial, costs shall be awarded to him at the rates prescribed in subdivision one of this section, based on the plaintiff's demand in the summons, but if the defendant recovers judgment in excess of the amount claimed by the plaintiff in the summons, costs shall be based on the amount of the recovery of the defendant.

8. To the defendant. Where the defendant recovers judgment on the plaintiff's failure to appear, costs to be awarded to the defendant shall be one-half of those provided in subdivision seven of this section.

9. To the defendant. Where the plaintiff discontinues before trial, costs to be awarded to the defendant shall be the same as

THE MUNICIPAL COURT CODE.

2. Before or at the beginning of the trial, as a trial fee, one dollar.

3. On filing notice of appeal, two dollars.

4. For issuing an order of arrest, a warrant of attachment, a requisition to replevy, or a warrant of seizure, one dollar.

5. For entry of judgment upon confession, one dollar.

6. On demanding a trial by a jury of six, three dollars; by a jury of twelve, six dollars.

7. For certifying a copy of a paper on file in the clerk's office, ten cents for each folio of one hundred words, except a return on appeal.

All fees shall be prepaid before the service shall be performed.

Former § 347 amended to conform to new practice. § 347 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1416, 1417. The words "a requisition to replevy or a warrant of seizure" are added in subd. 5.

§ 174. Employee's action; no fees.

When the action is brought by an employee against an employer for services performed by such employee, the clerk shall not demand or receive any fees whatsoever from the plaintiff or his attorney, if the plaintiff shall present proof by his own affidavit that his demand is less than fifty dollars, that he is a resident of the city of New York, that he has a good and meritorious cause of action against the defendant and the nature thereof, that he has made either a written or a personal demand upon the defendant or his agent for payment thereof and that payment was refused; provided that if the plaintiff shall demand a trial by jury, he must pay to the clerk the fees therefor.

Former §§ 44 and 348 amended in form; words "male or female" struck out. § 44 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1416; L. 1887, ch. 387. § 348 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1416.

§ 175. No fees or costs in state and city actions.

In an action brought in the name of the people of the state of New York by the attorney-general, or in the name of the city of New York or of any department, board or officer thereof, by the corporation counsel of the city of New York, for the recovery of a penalty, no fees shall be required to be paid by the plaintiff to the clerk and no costs shall be taxed against the plaintiff; but in case such plaintiff recovers judgment, the costs and taxable disbursements shall be included therein, and if collected shall be accounted for.

This section re-enacts the substance of former § 29 and Greater New York Charter, § 1384. § 29 amended by L. 1905, ch. 73; originally revised from Greater New York Charter, § 1384.

Former § 349 omitted because contained in Greater New York Charter, § 1550.

Former § 351, relating to 'jurors' fees, omitted because included in new § 118, subd. 1 and § 121.

§ 176. Witnesses' fees.

Witnesses in an action or a special proceeding or before a commissioner or justice of this court taking a deposition, are entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each day's attendance.

Former § 352 amended. § 352 originally revised from Code of Civ. Pro., §§ 3318, 3327. Fee increased to fifty cents and provisions for mileage omitted. (See new § 98.)

§ 177. Stenographer's fees.

In all cases of appeal from an order, final order or judgment, where a transcript of the stenographer's minutes of the testimony given on trial or hearing becomes a necessary part of the record on appeal, the stenographer's fees for making up such transcript shall be ten cents for every one hundred words actual count, and shall be paid in the first instance by the appellant and be taxable by him as a disbursement on the appeal.

Former § 353 amended in form. § 353 originally revised from Greater New York Charter, § 1867.

§ 178. Marshals' fees.

Fees shall be allowed to marshals as follows:

For serving a summons, precept, order of arrest, requisition to replevy, warrant of seizure or warrant of attachment, on each defendant served, one dollar.

For a copy of a warrant of attachment served on a person other than the defendant and for the making of an inventory of the property attached, fifty cents.

For levying an execution or selling under an attachment, five cents for every dollar collected to the amount of one hundred dollars, and two and a half cents for every dollar collected over one hundred dollars.

For every mile, over one mile, one way only, when serving an order of arrest, requisition to replevy, warrant of seizure, warrant of attachment or execution, six cents, to be computed from the clerk's office of the court out of which the mandate was issued to the place where it was executed;

For accompanying a party to obtain security ordered by the court, one dollar for each hour actually consumed;

For taking the defendant into custody on an order of arrest, execution or commitment, two dollars and fifty cents;

For serving a subpoena, fifty cents;

For every levy actually made by virtue of an execution, one dollar;

For executing a warrant in a summary proceeding to recover possession of real property, one dollar, and the same fees for traveling to execute the same as are herein allowed for executing other mandates;

For advertising for sale any property by virtue of an execution, one dollar;

For each day's necessary attendance at such sale, one dollar.

The said marshals shall perform all other services required of them by law, without any fees or compensation, and no other fees, charges, or compensation shall be allowed to, demanded or charged by them.

Former § 354 revised and amended. § 354 originally revised from L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1710. Former §§ 355, 356 are omitted.
